MOM AND POP

POP'S STAKE: $70.50

I lose again and if I had a beer, I'd cry in it. That seemed like a nice healthy quinella to me yesterday. And, in fact, I got the first half handily enough with Sister Dolas, but whatever happened to White Moss? Conexia seems to have the stuff for today's track so I'll wager a deuce on the beast to win. And for tomorrow I'll make a similar bet on Stop Press.

MOM'S STAKE: $60.00

Well this time I'm really going up the ladder and after Pop's scalp! He's had it all his way lately and as fast as he descends, I intend to rise. Better No Bet did just right by me yesterday to raise my kitty by $4.55. Something tells me that I can make another addition to the bankroll today by betting two dollars that Filalo will place. First Hour looks good for a deuce to place tomorrow.

New Orleans Tennis Flash Knocks Off Regina Player

QUEBEC, Aug. 16—(CP)—Dick Mouledous of New Orleans, conqueror yesterday of Vancouver's Walter Stohlberg, moved through third-round play today in the men's singles of the Canadian tennis championships with a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Bill Ebbels of Regina.

Ebbels put up stiff opposition against his highly-rated opponent, but had to bow to Mouledous' experience and better court generalship.

Bill Tully of Bronxville, N.Y., 1948 Canadian Champion, eliminated Lorne Main of Vancouver in three sets, 3-6, 7-5, 6-2.

Tully played a steadier game and Main's own errors were costly. Tully usually hit long to Main's forehand and short to his backhand and it appeared to produce results.

REFEREE CHANGED

The referee was changed between the second and third sets after some calls that displeased the crowd. Twice he accepted Tully's correction, once in Tully's favor and once in Main's.

Henri Rochon, Canada's No. 1 seeded player, defeated 19-year-old Alain Lemyse of France, 6-3, 6-4. The tall, young Frenchman seemed to lose heart once he trailed Rochon.

Lemyse had a strong service and a good backhand but Rochon concentrated on forcing Lemyse into playing forehand strokes and also counted points on drop shots.

Art Jeffery was too erratic against Robert Abdesselam, France's No. 2 player, and fell before superior play, 6-1, 6-1, with Abdesselam easing up.

Jean Paul Turgeon of Quebec eliminated Jack Spencer of Montreal in an unusual match 0-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Turgeon was hitting short in the first match and Spencer counted on smashes. In the second Turgeon stayed near the base line using a strong forehand and letting Spencer commit one error after another. Turgeon won 11 straight games before dropping two in a row and then recovering quickly.

The Markets At a Glance

TORONTO, Aug. 16—(CP)—Steady buying pulled all groups higher on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Volume was about 800,000 shares.

Most gains were held to fractions in the industrial list, which touched a 13-year high. A few key stocks gained nearly three points. Utilities, steels, papers, agriculture and constructions all pushed higher.

Base metals were at a 13-year high.

Golds traded narrowly. Seniors were never strong throughout the session and juniors were mixed.

Western oils strengthened early gains.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—A rising stock market picked up momentum this afternoon.

Demand for railway issues started the market on its way after a period of morning hesitancy. Buying soon spilled over into other groups, notably air craft and oils.

Gains ranged to more than $1 a share.

MONTREAL, Aug. 16—(CP)—Prices increased steadily near the final hour on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb market today.

The market moved hesitantly in the early hours, but improved considerably as the session progressed. Gains ranged well beyond a point in many cases. The odd issue lost around a point, with the balance of the losses being narrow fractions.

Mines and western oils moved hesitantly. Changes were mostly pennies. Anacon and Ascot eased slightly, while East Sullivan was unchanged.

98 Yank Bombers In Big Korea Blow

TOKYO, Aug. 16.—A huge fleet of 98 B-29s poured 850 tons of fiery death and destruction on 40,000 to 60,000 Red troops massed west of the Naktong river for an imminent offensive against Taegu.

Across the river from the smoking, flaming target area, infantrymen of the 1st cavalry division re-captured battle scarred Waegwan, wiped out an enemy bridgehead south of the town and contained a second Red bridgehead to the northeast.

The 98 Superfortresses dumped more than 3,000 bombs totalling a record 850 tons on four to six enemy divisions packed into a 26-square-mile rectangle just northwest of Waegwan, 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

The raid, twice as heavy as most previous B-29 strikes against the North Koreans, was believed to have killed or wounded thousands of enemy troops and wrecked Communist plans for an early attack on Taegu, temporary capital of South Korea.

Returning airmen reported "excellent" results. They said the target area—7½ miles long and 3½ miles wide—was "saturated". However, an air force communique said a detailed evaluation of the results would have to await reconnaissance photographs.

CHEER TROOPS

For two hours and 10 minutes, a steady parade of B-29s sowed 500-pound bombs every 150 feet through the rectangle, from north to south. Then 5th air force Mustangs thundered over the area to shoot or rocket anything that moved.

United Press War Correspondent Robert Vermillion reported from Waegwan front that 1st Cavalry division men watched in awe and delight as the big four-engined bombers showered bombs on the Reds across the Naktong.

1st Cavalry infantrymen and tanks cleared the enemy out of Waegwan, on the Taegu-Taejon highway, and began an assault up the slopes of an enemy-held ridge 1,500 yards to the northeast and nearly a mile inside the American lines, Vermillion said.

American artillery, tank and small arms fire pinned down an estimated 500 Communists on the ridge, and the enemy pocket was considered officially contained.

CHASE OUT REDS

Some three or four miles south of Waegwan, troops of the 5th Cavalry regiment chased 200 Communists off a 1,000-foot hill. Those who escaped the American fire fled back across the river.

The Communists had taken the heights both north and south of Waegwan in a mass river crossing before dawn Tuesday.

Gunfire from the river front was reported already audible in Taegu.

Farther south, carrier-based marine planes reported they smashed a column of 150 enemy artillery pieces being hauled toward the Naktong west of Taegu.

Crops Suffer After Frost Hits North

Many crops were completely ruined and others heavily damaged in the Peace River district last night as from one to six degrees of frost followed on the heels of Monday's heavy unseasonal snows.

Tonight crops in the Edmonton district and as far south as Calgary may suffer the same fate.

Weather officials warn that temperatures will drop to 30 degrees in the Vermilion and Coronation region, and the risk of frost is serious in all central and northern parts of the province.

At Red Deer, Edmonton and Calgary the mercury is expected to drop to 35 degrees but crops in low lying areas will likely be touched by frost in these districts.

WORST HIT

Grande Prairie district was reported to be one of the worst hit in the Block. From one to five degrees of ground frost was recorded, causing up to 100 per cent damage to most crops. Grain is mostly in the milk stage.

The district was suffering its second setback in as many days. Early yesterday morning, heavy wet snow blanketed the district to a depth of four to five inches, flattening crops to the ground.

Two weeks ago Grande Prairie reported damage up to 100 per cent from the severe hail storm to many crops.

Edge In Weight Goes To Greco

MONTREAL, Aug. 16—(BUP)—Kid Gavilan of Cuba, a 7 to 5 choice over Canadian welterweight champion Johnny Greco for their bout at the Montreal baseball park tonight, will go into the ring with a 2½-pound weight disadvantage.

Gavilan weighed 147½ pounds at the official weigh-in today, while Greco scaled 150.

India Rocked 2 Hours By Near-Record Quake

By Reuters News Agency

Scientists studied jumbled records on five continents today to determine the centre and direction of a deep earthquake that struck India with near-record force for two hours last night.

The quake hit with a force put at 8.4—only 1.6 points below total-destruction intensity.

In eastern India women and children ran screaming into the streets, where they huddled and prayed with their menfolk until the last shiver of the earth's crust had passed. Reports so far have not mentioned casualties.

FELT AROUND WORLD

The shocks were recorded on seismographs around the world.

It was one of the five greatest earthquakes on record.

Cables from Calcutta said there were reports of heavy damage in Siliguri, West Bengal, 30 miles southeast of the big tea town of Darjeeling. There were no details.

Calcutta itself shivered for a full minute as the shocks swept through Assam, Burma, Bihar and the eastern united provinces.

Seismologists in North America, Australia, Europe and South America reported their instruments hard hit.

Furniture Man Dies At 75

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Peter E. Kroehler, 78, head of the world's biggest furniture-making firm, died yesterday.

He was chairman of the board of the Kroehler Manufacturing Company, which he helped found in 1893. Kroehler has factories in Stratford, Ont., and Montreal.

Five Farmers Die In Plane Crash

SWEETWATER, Ill., Aug. 16.—A Stinson passenger plane crashed and burned in a bean field today killing all five occupants, state police reported. The party of fliers apparently was en route to the Illinois State Fair to take part in a flying farmers demonstration.

Missing Man Sought

Canadian Red Cross are seeking the whereabouts of Peter Friesser, 45, formerly of Sirnitz, Karnten, Osterreich.

Anyone having any information concerning Friesser is asked to contact assistant provincial commissioner, Robert Muir, at 606 Tegler building, Edmonton.

Crops, War, Fishing Talked By Visiting Governor-General

Canada's governor-general is as near to being a Canadian as an Oxford-accented Irishman who must eventually return to Great Britain can ever be.

Field Marshal Viscount Alexander of Tunis, GCB, CSI, DSO, MC, ADC, proved that last night.

Stopping overnight in Edmonton between a holiday with his family at Jasper and resumption of his state duties at Ottawa, he talked—as most Canadians currently talk—of the Korean war, the A-bomb, the possibility of a Third World War, Canada's civilian defence measures, fishing and the crops.

He's better qualified to speak on the first few subjects than the last—but he's learning fast how to judge crop prospects.

Last night he scanned the skies with the same anxiety that creases the face of a wheat land farmer, and observed that the lifting cloud bank could mean a devastating frost for Northern Alberta's grain.

HE KNOWS WAR

But though his knowledge of Canadians' agriculture industry is only recently acquired, his experience in the military field puts him among the few residents of the Dominion really qualified to speak on the current war situation.

Viscount Alexander was last man off the beaches at Dunkerque, commander of the British retreat in Burma, and grand stategist in the now famous Allied drive against Field Marshal Rommel in Libya.

He was still the soldier last night when he gave his opinions of the current situation: "But I am not speaking as a governor-general now — I'm just summing up from a soldier's viewpoint."

HE SUMS UP

Here is his summing up:

The Korean situation is not likely to develop into a third world war. There is more evidence now that it will remain localized than there was a few weeks ago.

But a very real danger exists that the Korean conflict may become a type of Spanish civil war. This will develop if Russians openly volunteer for service with Communist forces in Korea as they joined Spanish Communist armies more than a decade ago.

The North Koreans must be stopped—"unless they are stopped, the trouble will go on and on and break out in other places."

And stopping them will mean a very, very difficult campaign for United Nations' forces. "UN forces will have to be built up until they are large enough to push those fellows right back — unless, of course, the Russians call off the war, and I don't think they are very likely to do that."

A-BOMB UNLIKELY

The "very, very difficult campaign," the famous soldier estimates, will require "many, many months and at least six divisions, perhaps more."

But neither side is likely to use the A-bomb. "The atom bomb is rather like gas in the last war: everybody had it, but nobody used it."

On the question of Canada's civil defence, which is paramount in the minds of all Canadians, the governor-general had this to say:

"A great deal is being done—far more has been accomplished in the way of civilian defence than the public is aware of."

But the iron-grey-haired governor-general had lighter subjects to talk about than the war and bombs. The fishing at Jasper was very fine, "and yes" — with a flash of his ready smile — "there's just a chance I may be runner-up for the season's championship catch for Maligne River fishing."

There's a disarming frankness about the Viscount that accounts for the way he has won Canadians' affection.

He'd like to stay in Canada when his term of office expires next April, "but I'll have to go back to Great Britain — you wouldn't want an old ex-governor-general hanging about."

The maps of the Dominion so close at hand in the vice-regal party's private railway car in which they are travelling are silent testimony of the Viscount's status as "almost a Canadian."

His promise, in view of that, is a natural one:

"I'll be back," he said. "I'll be back to Alberta for the skiing at Banff and Jasper this winter. And even after we have returned to England, I'll be back to Canada for a visit."

At the governor-general's request no official functions were planned for Alexander's visit here but the vice regal party was greeted at the railway station by His Worship Mayor Parsons and Mrs. Parsons.

Representatives of the three armed forces also paid their respects to the governor general.

Air Commodore H. M. Carscallen of the RCAF, Commander L. R. Hoar, RCN(R) and Col. E. Brown of the Canadian Army units at Edmonton represented the three branches of the service.

Col. E. B. Wilson, reserve army officer, acted as the governor's aide.

Pioneer Dies At Mannville

MANNVILLE, Aug. 16—Funeral service was held Monday in McQueen's United Church for A. E. Townsend, pioneer of this district who died Friday in Mannville hospital.

Rev. H. Penner officiated and interment was in Mannville Cemetery.

Born in Bloomington, Nebraska, in 1878, Mr. Townsend came west in 1905 and homesteaded north-east of Mannville, in the district known as Fidelity. Later he moved to the Pathfinder district, but still farmed the homestead up until the time of his death.

Surviving are his wife; one son Clifford; one daughter, Fern, both at home; two brothers, Arthur of Bloomington, Nebraska and Frank of Vancouver, B.C.; one sister, Mrs. A. V. Bell of Nampa, Idaho.

Albertan Wins N.Y. Contest

SEDGEWICK, Alta.—(CP)—Mrs. Dorothy Chalmers, home economics teacher here, has won a prize for a "Dagwood" sandwich entered in a recipe contest sponsored in New York.

Among the toasted "meal-in-one" sandwich's more important ingredients are bacon, tomatoes, eggs, cheese, white sauce and mayonnaise.

HARVESTERS NOT NEEDED

CALGARY, Aug. 16—(CP)—No need has developed yet in southern Alberta for eastern harvesters, according to E. J. Wilson, acting manager of the local office of the National Employment Service.

To date, sufficient local harvesters and farm labor had been found to fill farm employers' requirements.

Strike Again Is Discussed By Cabinet

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—The cabinet sat for two hours and 50 minutes today and then recessed without announcing what action if any the government may be planning to meet the railway strike threat.

The session, a continuation of one started yesterday, was to resume again this afternoon.

Emerging from the meeting at 1.20 p.m., Prime Minister St. Laurent said there would be no announcement at least until after this afternoon's session.

There were no indications of a settlement from the disputants themselves—the railways and the Unions representing 124,000 employees that have scheduled a strike for wage and hours concessions.

The strike, which would paralyze rail transport, was under discussion by cabinet at a session that lasted 4¼ hours yesterday.

DECISION SEEN

One strong report here was that the eventual decision would be to ask the railways to [illegible] a definite date in the future—likely two years from now—for bringing into effect the 40-hour week with unreduced take-home pay sought by the employes.

But indications were shaping up that the question of the timing of the 40-hour week might be the remaining major barrier to a settlement.

OFFER REJECTED

The unions have asked the 40-hour week with the same pay as 48 hours, plus an hourly increase of seven or 10 cents.

The railways' "final" offer delivered last week was for a 44-hour week with unreduced pay and a recognition that the 40-hour week should be put in at the "appropriate time" in the future.

This has been rejected by the 15 international and two Canadian unions involved, but there have been developing signs that the unions would be inclined to settle for the proferred 44-hour week with an assurance of the 40-hour arrangement at some specific later date.

For that, it is reported here, they would forego the straight hourly wage increase.

Cubs Beat All-Stars

HARDISTY, Aug. 16—San Francisco Cubs, the colored team from California, defeated Hardisty All Stars at Hardisty Lake Sunday before a crowd of more than 2,500 people.

North Crops Suffer In Frost

Pool report that frost has done "terrific' 'damage to wheat stands in the southern Peace River district.

CROPS FLATTENED

A telegram from the Wheat Pool superintendent for the area south of the river says that snow last night "flattened all the crops."

The wire reports there was "enough frost to freeze ice; no doubt damage will be terrific."

The Pool officials in Calgary explain that crops were "very late" this year, and any frost such as the one which occurred last night would make a big difference to the grade, and probably also to the yields, of the wheat crop.

Official reports from the Dominion weather office discloses temperatures at Fairview dropped to 28 and 31 at Fort St. John. Grouard registered a low of 28 and High Prairie recorded 33 at 8:30 this morning.

UNOFFICIAL REPORT

Pouce Coupe, just across the border in the B.C. section of the Peace River Block, unofficially reported six degrees of frost.

Early yesterday, six inches of wet snow flattened crops and serious losses are expected. Willows and limbs of trees broke from the weight of the wet snow.

Grain company officials explained the situation as "really serious."

Only hope for even a fair crop from areas not ruined by the hail and frost is warm dry weather until at least Sept. 1st, according to reports.

Tough To Have Famous Father

Sometimes it's tough to have a famous father.

The public and the press are a bit inclined to overlook a fellow who is ten years old when his governor general father is at hand.

Take the other day when Viscount Alexander, holidaying with his family at Jasper, landed a great whopping big trout—big enough to make the governor general the season's championship fisherman at Maligne river.

Ten-year-old Brian Alexander was along on the fishing adventure, too, and he hooked two of the river trout.

"But," he confided a little wistfully last night when the vice-regal party reached Edmonton, "mine were only about six inches long."

Canada Increases Jets 50 Per Cent

Korean War Raises Orders For Speedy Jet Fighters

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(BUP)—The air force has more than doubled its orders for speedy jet fighter planes to protect Canada against sneak bombing attacks, it was disclosed today.

A defence department source said a contract let some months ago for 100 F86 Sabre jets and been greatly increased and that another, for 10 twin-jet all-weather "Canucks," had been boosted twice.

Exact figures were withheld for security reasons, but the informant said they were more than twice the number originally planned before the Korean war began.

WORLD'S FASTEST

The F86 fighters have been described as among the world's fastest military combat planes not in the experimental stage. They are being manufactured by Canadair Ltd., in Montreal under licence to an American firm.

A. V. Roe Aircraft Co., is producing the Canucks in Ontario. The Canucks are primarily designed as long-distance night fighters.

Both aircraft were recently flight tested at Montreal and were described by defence minister Brooke Claxton, who watched their performance, as "a fine complementary team."

Air Marshal W. A. Curtis, chief of the air staff, announced last night that the number of RCAF fighter squadrons would be increased "considerably beyond the total of five approved" by parliament when it voted last session on defence department appropriations.

Ninth German Red Newspaper Banned

STUTTGART, Germany, Aug. 16.—(Reuters)—The Allied High Commission in Germany yesterday banned the ninth Communist daily newspaper in less than two weeks. This time it was the Volksstimme of Stuttarget, banned for 90 days for publishing anti-Allied articles.

U.K. Polio Rising

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(Reuters)—Britain is fighting an infantile paralysis outbreak described as the worst since 1947, but medical men said the situation has not yet become alarming. More than 370 cases have been reported in the last week.

Belgians Form New All-Roman Catholic Cabinet

BRUSSELS, Aug. 16—(Reuters)—A new All-Roman Catholic cabinet was formed last night, ending Belgium's four days of crisis over King Leopold's renunciation of power. The new premier is senator Joseph Pholein, former justice minister.

The last government, also all-Catholic, collapsed after trying to restore King Leopold to the throne. It resigned Friday, three hours after parliament handed over the royal prerogatives to Leopold's 19-year-old son, Prince Baudouin.

Van Zeeland, leading Catholic statesman who undertook Sunday to form a new administration but declined the premiership, retained the office of foreign minister he has held for the last year.

Poland Quits Health Setup

GENEVA, Switzerland, Aug. 16—(AP)—Poland withdrew from the World Health Organization yesterday, charging that the United States was using the organization for its own political ends.

Russia, Albania, Bulgaria, White Russia, Communist China, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania, and the Ukraine already have withdrawn.

Still More U.K. Cars Are Made

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(Reuters)—British automobile manufacturers have turned out 100,000 more cars in the first six months of this year than the same period last year—itself a record year. The British Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders yesterday put the six-month output at 262,500 cars and 135,000 trucks and buses.

Australia remained the biggest customer, taking 70,000 cars. Canada tripled her imports to buy 38,500.

Normally there are two high tides every day, about 12½ hours apart.

Social Credit Plans National Campaign

Basic Dividend Plank Said To Be On Regina Agenda

By Pat McVean

Plans for a national campaign by the Social Credit party will be formulated at a national convention Oct. 18, 19 and 20 at Regina.

It is rumored Premier E. C. Manning may be asked to take official national leadership of the party by convention delegates.

Present leader of the Social Credit party in Canada is Solon E. Low, MP for the Peace River, who was elected to that position by the national convention in 1946. He was a member of the Alberta cabinet from 1935 to 1945.

It is believed that Mr. Low would continue to lead the Social Credit party in the House of Commons if the Alberta premier accepts leadership of the party's accelerated "On to Ottawa" campaign.

MANIFESTO DRAFTED

Manifesto was drafted by the national executive of the Social Credit party, meeting this summer at Winnipeg.

The party is also rumored to be planning the issue of a type of "basic dividend" to aged and infirm persons if it gains national power.

Issue of basic dividend of about $25 a month to every person in Alberta was the Social Credit party's original plan when it first gained attention in Alberta more than 15 years ago.

RULED OUT

Reform of the monetary system which would have permitted the issuing of such dividends subsequently was declared by the courts to be ultra vires of provincial government.

Revision of the party's constitution will take place at the Regina convention, it was learned today.

About 200 voting and non-voting delegates are expected to attend the meeting.

Taxi Driver Blames Trio For Crash

Three taxi passengers were blamed by cabbie Laurie Amyotte, 11227 106 street, for a freak accident which left his taxi wedged up against a telephone pole and forced a second car off the road.

Amyotte said he picked up the trio known to him only as 'Airbase Rose", "Roy" and "Elsie" last night about 11:30 p.m. and started for the American air base.

An argument started in the back seat as the taxi went down Kingsway causing Amyotte to rebuke them, "as they could do it at home."

PULLED OVER SEAT

Aroused, the passengers turned on Amyotte and pulled him over the seat by the throat and pummelled him on the face.

The taxi jumped four curbs as it headed out of control across 111 avenue near 106 street.

It just missed another car before mounting the final curb and hitting the telephone pole.

Driver of the other car, Donald Pruden, 11341 97 street, said he saw the taxi coming toward him "with the driver going over the back seat."

DAMAGED TIRE

Pruden said he just missed the taxi by jumping the curb himself damaging his right rear tire.

Injured Airman Dies Here After Highway Crash

LAC M. R. Brown, 20, of Leduc, a member of the No. 2 Construction and Maintenance unit, RCAF, Calgary, died in an Edmonton hospital last night from injuries received in an accident at Mile 296 of the North West highway system early Sunday.

Victim was driving a service dump truck when it plunged off a high embankment and rolled over at 1:30 a.m. Sunday. Three passengers in the dump truck were uninjured.

Further details of the accident were not immediately available. RCAF officers are investigating the accident.

Rites Scheduled On Friday For R. D. Chisholm

Funeral services for Robert David Chisholm, 64, of 10541 79 avenue, who died here August 14, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday from Hainstock and Son Ltd. Funeral Chapel. Rev. Hart Cantelon will officiate.

Born in Parry Sound, Ont., Mr. Chisholm came west to Josephburg, Sask., as one of the original "Parry Sound Settlers" at the turn of the century.

In 1905 he moved to Edmonton and became active in construction work in this area, working for CNR, Grand Trunk Pacific and on the building of the High Level bridge.

For the past 30 years he was with Western Cartage and Storage Ltd.

He is survived by his wife and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Arnstrong, Edmonton, and Mrs. Wm. Smith, Vancouver.

Burial will be in Beechmount Cemetery.

1,100 Civic Workers Get $12 To $13 Raises

Pay increases averaging $12 to $13 each per month for 1,100 members of Edmonton's largest civic employes' union were obtained in the wages dispute settlement announced yesterday.

The settlement was arrived at through direct collective bargaining, and officials of Local 30, Civic Employes' Federal Union, yesterday officially withdrew their request for an arbitration board.

Malcolm Ainslie, secretary and business agent of Local 30, said today the settlement ties fluctuations in wages to the Dominion cost of living index, rather than to the Edmonton figure, as was the case in the old agreement.

OUTSIDE WORKERS

Union members include outside workers in engineering, waterworks and parks departments, airport, garage and purchasing departments.

Casual workers receive an increase of 6½ cents per hour over their basic rate, retroactive to Jan. 1. Effective Aug. 1 they receive another half cent, which will bring them up to 97 cents per hour.

The rate is tied to a Dominion cost of living index of 164, and on Nov. 1 will rise another two cents if the index maintains its present level of 167.5. Adjustments will be made every three months.

NEW AGREEMENT

While wage boosts are retroactive to Jan. 1, the new agreement runs from July 1 to July 1, 1951.

"Just as the arbitration board was being set up to settle the lengthy dispute between the city and our union, we came to an agreement," said Mr. Ainslie. "So we asked that our request for the arbitration board be withdrawn, and this was done yesterday."

Union demand was for a 12-cent-an-hour increase over the basic rate.

Final adjustments in some classifications must be made before the agreement is signed.

Pulp Mill Work Starts Soon Again

Work on the $10,000,000 pulp and paper mill project east of Edmonton is expected to be resumed shortly following a delay caused by a change in layout plans.

This was announced here today by a representative of R. O. Sweezey, Montreal, president of Edmonton Pulp and Paper Mills Ltd.

The official said excavation for foundations, started in July, will likely be resumed after the arrival here shortly of Mr. Sweezey from Montreal.

The project will occupy a site on the north bank of the Saskatchewan river just east of the town of Beverly and cross-river from the Imperial Oil Ltd. refinery.

Export News Spurs Gas Well Hunt

CALGARY, Aug. 16 Natural gas made big news again with the announcement by McColl and Union that they would attempt to extend already large proven reserves in southeastern Alberta around Pakowki Lake and the report of another gas discovery east of Calgary.

The new strike came at Cessford about 30 miles north of the Princess field and almost 100 miles due east of Calgary.

Gas came at the rate of 5,000,000 cubic feet a day at the base of the Cretaceous. Flow was accompanied by a light spray of condensate and a small amount recovery of crude oil in the pipe when it was pulled.

The well is being drilled as a Madison test by principals of the Delhi Oil Corporation. The A. G. Bailey Company secured the farmout from Hudson Bay Oil and Gas..

GAS EXPORT

Meanwhile, spurred by the prospects of gas export, McColl and Union Oil of California are going back into southeastern Alberta to extend large reserves proven up by the companies in 1945 when synthetic gasoline seemed to be the only solution to the petroleum shortage on the praries.

Both Imperial and McColl Union hastened to prove up large reserves of natural gas and plans for synthetic gasoline plants were in the planning stage.

McColl Union proven reserves in the area are rated at about one third of a trillion, enough in themselves to suply a line to Winnipeg for several years.

100,000 Pilgrims Visit Shrine

THREE RIVERS, Que., Aug. 16.—(CP)—James Cardinal McGuigan of Toronto yesterday urged Roman Catholics to turn to the blessed Virgin and She will "show her great intercessory power and save us from the evils that exist today in our civilization."

Cardinal McGuigan was speaking at a pontifical high mass here in honor of the Feast of the Assumption at the national shrine of Our Lady of the Cape in nearby Cap de la Madeleine. More than 100,000 pilgrims attended the ceremonies.

At temperatures of 20 to 30 degrees, moth larvae are dormant and cannot do any damage, but will revive if the temperature is raised beyond freezing.

Old Trams Paying Best

Edmonton Transit System's poor relation, the ancient street car, isn't so poor after all.

Matter of fact, the city's few remaining trams turned in more June profits than any trolley coach or motor bus line.

Their 613,269 passengers were also more than their nearest competitor, the 95 street and West End trolley bus route, which carried 603,861.

With earnings of 60.52 cents per mile, the trams wound up the month's operation with a profit of $5,490, while the 95 street trolley bus line netted $5,337.

Highlands and Low Level trolley bus lines also showed profits during June, but the 102 avenue route wound up in the red, to bring the overall trolley bus profit figure to $8,276.

Only motor bus route to show a profit among the 10 in operation, the 101 street route, set a close second figure in earnings per mile, with 60.50 cents.

But it didn't pile up the trams mileage and therefore wound up with a profit of only $1,103.

Net losses on other motor bus routes ran as high as the $5,193 shown by the Bonnie Doon line, and resulted in an overall motor bus loss of $15,636.

Lull Hits Recruiting

The number of Edmonton applicants seeking entry into Canada's Special Service Force dropped somewhat yesterday, as only 25 filed through the recruiting office.

In the first seven days of recruiting a total of 406 made application, an average of 59 per day.

Total number of volunteers for the Force has now reached 431. Of yesterday's 25 would-be soldiers only one was for the permanent army.

It is reported that the recruiting for the new force will continue until at least 8,000 men are signed up across the Dominion.

Present figures show that 3,027 volunteers are already in training or on their way to camps.

Settlement Said Near For Police At $220 Level

City policemen are reported today ready to settle the lengthy wage dispute with city officials.

Basis of settlement is reliably learned to be $220.65 per month for first class constable with four years' service. Present rate is $203.

Settlement of the transit workers' wage dispute is also reported to be imminent.

Edmonton Polio Total Up To 17

Edmonton's 1950 polio cases rose to 17 today, with three new cases reported by city health officials.

A nine-year old girl from the Highlands and an eight-year old girl from Norwood district were taken to hospital with polio.

A 19-year old boy from the South Side was also released from hospital after an illnes finally diagnosed as polio.

Inexplicable Delay

Both Premier Ernest Manning and Mines Minister N. E. Tanner are conscious of the fact that natural gas export hearings should be speeded up if Alberta is to get any share of natural gas markets outside the province.

This is clear from Mr. Tanner's statement that he and the premier had discussed acceleration of the hearings before the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board with the idea of getting actual work started on the pipelines.

But while the matter has been discussed, nothing has been done.

Further hearings on various applications for export are scheduled for September 25, October 9 and December 4.

This means, that under the most propitious circumstances, no permit to export natural gas can be issued before the beginning of 1951 at the earliest.

In view of the fact that Texan interests are moving at a rapid pace to get Texas gas into the very areas Alberta gas would serve, the unduly slow functioning of Alberta's machinery of enquiry seems sure to lose millions of dollars for this province and to deprive oil operators of that extra revenue which goes into exploratory work in new fields.

The Edmonton Bulletin has outlined three proposals which would prevent this calamity;

1. That the scheduled dates of the hearings be advanced and brought closer together.

2. That the duration of the hearings be curtailed through instructions to the Conservation Board to rule out prolonged evidence which is verbose, repetitious and possibly deliberately obstructive.

3. That an export permit be granted to some applicant who has already made out a case without waiting to grant permits until all the hearings are over.

Premier Manning and Mr. Tanner appear to understand the urgency of the case.

There is no apparent reason why they should not take some positive action along the lines suggested or along any other effective line.

Discourteous to a Busy Board

Hearing of evidence on the Miracle Mile project will begin again tomorrow by the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners whose chairman has said that the Board, expecting the sittings to last no more than two weeks, had made previous commitments for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

It must, indeed, be irritating and frustrating to the commissioners, faced with a heavy volume of important work, when a hearing such as this one is made to drag out, week after week, through the submission of evidence and argument that is little more than frivolous.

Time after time the commissioners have had to explain patiently to opponents of the project that they are not sitting on the merits of tax concessions by the city, since that principle has already been endorsed by the legislature, but on the single issue of whether or not the undertaking is in the best interests, not of individual citizens, but of the city as a whole.

The commissioners have been courteous and painstaking.

It is a pity that some of that courtesy could not have been returned by solicitors for the opposition who, in some of the developments, have been definitely obstructive.

What other term than obstructive or even mischievous could be applied, for example, to the spectacular production of an assistant in economics from the University of British Columbia who was dragged all the way from Vancouver in an endeavor to show that President-Designate Andrew Stewart of the University of Alberta did not know what he was talking about when he heartily endorsed the first New Amsterdam agreement with the city?

This assistant, Dr. Robert Clark, (of whom we had never heard), was brought in as a special pleader to support the views of a little group irrevocably opposed to the project for reasons best known to themselves.

He came from Vancouver whose mayor and aldermen had already expressed pique over the fact that Mr. L. E. Detwiler made his city centre proposal to Edmonton before approaching Vancouver.

He came without knowledge of the background of Edmonton's development, of the peculiar needs of this city or of the full circumstances surrounding the agreement.

And yet these lawyers set up his special pleading against the unbiassed and unpartisan survey made by Dean Andrew Stewart at the request of the Chamber of Commerce which wanted unprejudiced facts and had no axe to grind.

This unknown "expert" was set up in the stand to stamp as fallacies the considered opinions of a man who is internationally famous as an economist and who enjoys the confidence and esteem of Alberta to such an extent that he has been named head of the provincial university.

How much more of this pretentious drivel must the busy Utilities Commissioners be compelled to hear before the wordy and repetitious and pointless opposition is brought to an end?

Orchids for Three of Us

A complaint about the leaky roof over the protection walk outside the Macdonald hotel construction work was first made by The Edmonton Bulletin.

Monday night the city council asked commissioners to ask the contractors to do something about it.

Yesterday morning the contractors agreed to waterproof this roof.

No more water will drip down the necks of passersby.

And orchids are due, we modestly believe, to all three of us.

Evidence of Patriotic Spirit

The Edmonton city council has given evidence of a fine patriotic spirit in offering leave of absence to those employes who desire to enlist in the special Canadian Army force being recruited for service in Korea.

One would have thought that the federal government would have provided legislation before this guaranteeing reinstatement in jobs for those who join the colors in this crisis.

The city council has shown itself to be more far-seeing than the federal government—which is something for aldermen to paste in their hats.

What has happened to the Allies air power in Korea?

Why, in the face of slashing air assaults from every direction, has the Communist army, with no air cover at all, pushed the Allied ground forces into a beachhead with a perimeter of only 120 miles?

The reason seems to be that air power advocates made claims that were too enthusiastic. Also, after World War II, people found reliance on air power more comforting than such matters as construction or universal military training, and thus let themselves expect too much of it.

Another factor here has been the fact the air force has been debarred from using all-out strategic bombing—the kind of air war that, according to an impartial strategic bombing survey, was decisive in Europe.

It's different here because the Communist supply sources are not in North Korea to any great extent.

Differences Also Factor

Differences in opinion between the army and air force—now pretty well ironed out—have provided another factor in the air power situation.

High air force men argued shortly after the war began that bombers should be used to cut enemy communication and transport lines running north and south across the 38th parallel. But the army apparently insisted that the situation then was so desperate that air power—bombers as well as fighters—had to be used to support ground troops in immediate battle.

Air force officers explained privately that "we tried to stop the waterfall at the bottom instead of putting a dam at the top."

Struggle Was One-Sided

According to the air force, it and the navy have furnished United Nations ground troops with more tactical air power per division than was available in Europe—and still the Communists kept coming.

"It's been like shooting ducks in a pickle barrel," a high navy air officer said. "We do not know how they keep moving."

These are some of the explanations from various well-informed sources:

1. The Communist attack caught the U.S. flat-footed, with the lesson that better intelligence was needed.

2. When the attack began, the Communists probably had at least 200 planes to provide aggressive ground support until the U.S. air force entered the war.

3. U.S. fighter planes at first were tied up with escorting evacuation transport planes and ships, as well as airborne elements of the 24th division that were rushed into the scene.

4. Some pilots needed more training in air-to-ground gunnery and rocket firing. Well-trained tactical control teams were lacking to direct fighter pilots by radio from the front lines.

5 The Communists showed themselves experts at camouflage—hiding well by day or moving piecemeal in peasant garb and making major moves by night

6. Weather and the treacherous Korean terrain occasionally slowed the air offensive.

7. The war has revealed that no fighter has yet been devised which could with precision ferret out an enemy like this one in the darkness.

Authoritative sources believe that without air superiority the Communists must lose the war, once the United Nations forces have something like equal forces on the ground. Then the allied troops will be able to move at will and the enemy will not.

Letters to the Editor

Hoarders Denounced

Editor, Bulletin—I saw some pictures and read of pickets in the American city of Philadelphia parading against hoarders with a leading sign stating "Don't be a hog". This sign should have read "don't be a rat," for hogs do not hoard. As I know well, the little pig his appetite is big, he is not like the chicken with her dig-dig-dig. He is not like some men, who are only happy when they have grabbed the choicest morsel in the other fellow's pen.

Now the pig ain't very neat, his food ain't very sweet, and his only aspiraton s to eat—eat—eat. He is a synonym for greed, but unlke the human breed, he does not keep on piling up a lot he does not need, and may I state also in the animal kingdom the rat is a greedy hoarder, whose place has been taken in our kingdom by that well known two legged rat, whose fear of war, fattens his faith in evil. W. S G.

Advertising Democracy

Editor, Bulletin—Although war has not been declared, there is bloodshed in Korea, and the hazard of World War III seems imminent.

I still believe that peaceful negotiation is one of the best ways to settle a dispute in this modern day and age. Why not good, clean, salesmanship? Let us advertise and sell democracy. It certainly has an excellent record. Is there anyone who can deny the high standard of living we have attained in less than one hundred years of democracy?

It has done for this continent in less than a century that which other systems could not do on the other continents in 10 centuries or more.

This may not meet with everyone's approval, but I do find that the "grousers" who continually run down our system are, for a large part, people who earn a living, but who like to over indulge in the various vices (drinking is one of them), then go around griping that they cannot make a decent living. They'll never blame themselves; it's always the government and the system that is at fault.

Others with negative attitudes make big issues of democracy's little flaws, and instead of helping to iron out these flaws, they're all ready to scrap the whole system and try something else improved and known to be faulty.

Democracy is evolutionary, and as it goes along, improvements are made for the benefit of all. It has brought to our doorstep all (and more) of the necessities of life.

Thus we are overburdened with fools and sluggards who attempt to get more out of life than nature can offer, then condemn all of us when everything goes wrong, as it always will. There is no reason whatsoever for any person desirous of living a clean, modest life, to run down the democratic way of living.

Railway Crossings

Editor, Bulletin—As everyone in this city knows, there has been an appalling increase in railway crossing accidents, in many cases fatal.

Since the latest one on 97th St., Mayor Sid Parsons has suggested "wig-wag" signals. These will be a great help and should be installed throughout the city.

May I suggest a simple remedy which may not be a complete answer to the problem, but would help considerably throughout the whole province?

Make those responsible, cut back the hedges and keep them trimmed. In too many cases the line is completely obscured by high hedges or trees that have been left to grow wild. A train cannot be seen until you are right on the tracks.

NEARLY CAUGHT.

Looking Backward

1940—10 Years Ago

The Midlands, Britain's great industrial centre, was subjected to its longest and severest bombing of the war. Several people were killed.

Uncontrolled Selfishness

Editor, Bulletin—Never in the history of the world has there been so much scientific knowledge and highly educated people, yet with all this so-called enlightenment the world never was in such a turmoil. Which should prove to all sane-thinking people that this kind of knowledge without a spiritual foundation is almost valueless and will eventually destroy the world if God doesn't intervene.

Today we are fighting Communists on one hand and creating them on the other by exploitation which in my opinion is one of the worst evils of our day and we don't need to go out of Canada to see it in action. For at least one-third of our people are being literally robbed by big business and labor unions through high prices and high wages. This kind of robbery would never have happened had controls been kept on as they are the only method that will curtail exploitation and other evils.

Today there is over twice as much goods produced as there was during the war, yet prices are over 100 per cent higher. This doesn't make sense. But it does show what uncontrolled selfishness and greed will do regardless of nationality.

Searching Ships

Editor, Bulletin—I see by the papers that the Americans are said to be boarding all foreign ships at the three mile limit off the west coast with Geiger counters and other presumably suitable instruments in hand to see if there are any atomic bombs on board. This is good, but what has the west coast got that the east coast hasn't?

Is it not time that we copied the American procedure on the west and east coasts and searched all deep sea ships (including Canadian ships manned by members of hammer and sickle type unions) at the three mile limit?

Pioneers Neglected?

Editor, Bulletin—We read every day about one outfit after another wanting more money to meet cost of living. What about the old-timers and pioneers over 60 who dug this neck of the woods out of the bush.

What are the guys at Ottawa doing. Why don't they come right out and say you have no right to be alive?

They can find money for garden parties, receptions and the like but nix on the aged. That's the time they have no money.

Radar Protects Most Vital Areas

Areas most vital to U.S. security and industrial potential now are fully protected against a sneak "Pearl Harbor" attack by a network of radar stations and fighter planes.

An air force spokesman said the emergency radar network was set up with World War II equipment. He said it could serve effectively until the projected permanent radar network has been completed.

"It does not give complete coverage of the nation," he said, "but it is concentrated on those areas most vital to the security and industrial potential of the nation."

The air force is concentrating on defending the northern part of the country—that area running across the Canadian border and at least half way along both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

The air force also has concentrated clusters of radar stations and interceptor bases around specific industrial areas of the northeast, central and northwest.

Permanent Air Defence

In the meantime, it is working hard on the permanent aircraft defence and warning system authorized by Congress in March, 1949. Though the act authorized an expenditure of $85,500,000 for the project, Congress has not put up any funds specifically for it.

It passed instead another act authorizing the air force to take $50,000,000 from its regular appropriations for the purchase of sites and facilities for the network.

Congress' action did not cover the purchase of the radar sets themselves. These sets already have been procured through the regular air force purchasing program and are ready for installation as soon as permanent facilities can be built.

Some stations will be built on land already owned by the government. In most cases, however, the government will have to buy some high level land.

High Points Best Sites

This air force spokesman said the best radar site is always the highest land in the area to be protected. When lower land is used, he said, blind spots result because radar impulses do not penetrate solid objects, nor do they curve with the earth's surface.

The outbreak of war in Korea has made it possible for the air force to ask for the money to pay personnel necessary to man the network.

The network already is working on a 24-hour basis so this country will not be caught unawares as it was in the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor.

The outer radar ring—on the Canadian border and the sea coasts—will give the first warning should an enemy plane or planes seek to launch an attack. The radar network is geared to detect them about 150 miles from the border or coasts.

The inner ring around specific industrial areas and other important bombing objectives—like Washington for example—would receive additional protection if the enemy manages to penetrate the outer ring.

Under the present method of operation, the radar stations would direct U.S. fighter planes to intercept any approaching enemy aircraft.

PITCHING HORSESHOES

A-Bombs and Gams, Gangsters and Baruch

Maybe I'm all kerflumixed, but it seems to me the people who are hoarding things are plain nuts. For one thing, they're jacking up prices on themselves and for another, they're acting as if they had never heard of the atom bomb. As I see it, about the only thing worth hoarding these days is a pair running shoes.

Billy Rose

That's what I told the guy who does the purchasing for my night club a couple of days ago. He came up to me and said we ought to buy a lot of Scotch—that it was tough to get during the last war and figured to be even tougher during the next. I told him to relax, to go along as per usual.

Here's how I figure it. If the connivers in the Kremlin decide it isn't smart to shoot it out with us, our boats will continue to cross the Atlantic and we'll get all the Scotch we want. If they do fight us, chances are we'll give 'em the full atomic treatment and they'll return the favor by hitting back at our big cities

Well, one of the first towns to get it will be New York, and the day a blockbuster hits Times Square, what am I going to do with a lot of Scotch? Not even the waiters—let alone the customers—will show up at my joint That is, if there's any joint left.

Incidentally, the dames who are buying those extra pairs of nylons ought to have their head examined. If we have to start running for the hills, what makes them think anybody is going to stop to look at their legs?

Gangsters Do Poorly

Speaking of blood, sweat and more blood, a movie producer recently told me that most of the gangster pictures are giving a bad account of themselves at the box office. He said his studio had made a study of the flickers it had produced in the past five years, categorizing them under headings: the "upbeats" (which inspire and elevate), and the "downbeats" (which leave the spectator grim and gritty).

He said the figures proved that the public prefers love-'em-ups to shoot-'em-ups—that a kiss in the dark invariably outgrosses a stab in the back. Well, I hope he pays attention to his own statistics. I'm plenty tired of the one about the batter-and-yegg man named "Duke."

Baruch's Birthday

On August 19, Baruch is going to celebrate his 80th birthday, and I guess a good part of the country will celebrate it with him. Newspapers from Nome to Nigeria will review the heady history of the gent who got our country off the hook in two world wars, and whose recent emergency-control problem is so downright forthright.

I phoned my old boss the other day and told him that Eleanor would like to throw a birthday shindig for him at our place in Mt. Kisco. Mr. B. said he'd rather we didn't—that this wasn't the time for "monkey-business as usual."

Come to think of it, there's no one around the President who has had a dime's worth of experience in getting a nation ready for war.

Bernie is about the only man we have with any know-how in this department, and it's my hunch that somewhere along the line Harry S.—who has been playing his cards smart and tough lately—is going to kiss and make up with Old Silvertop

After all, when the body politic is sick, it's a good idea to send for the doctor who put it on its feet before.

Western Europe Faces Guns or Butter Choice

PARIS—Under the impact of the Korean war the Western world is being pushed close to the fateful choice of guns or butter. There still is some slack to be taken up in certain countries before economic expansion is radically affected, but the margin is certainly thinning.

According to national budget figures for 1949-'50, all of the non-Sovietized countries together contrived during the last year to devote some $20,000,000,000 to direct military expenses, and the bill obviously is about to increase by more than the $10,000,000,000 program proposed by President Truman.

Western Europe put up about $5,500,000,000 of the total, according to figures from the Bank for International Settlements in Basel. Although the burden fell unequally on the various countries, direct military expenses for the Marshall plan area took about 5 per cent of the total national income.

Groping For Capital

This figure must be superimposed on the picture of Western Europe still groping to a large extent for capital to invest in productive enterprises in order to keep up the pace of economic recovery that has been attained under the Marshall plan. Government and private investments and government spending in non-military fields are running at a substantially higher rate than they did in pre-war days—investments last year, for example, amounted to 18 per cent of the total supply of goods and services, against some 15 per cent in 1938.

Nevertheless, the organization for European Economic Co-operation stated in its third report that the increase in production had failed to catch up with the 10 per cent increase in the Western European population, with the result that average living standards for the area at the end of 1949 were still at a lower level than before the war.

The way in which the defence cost load has been shared is disclosed in these figures from the Bank for International Settlements, on the basis of 1949-'50 budgets:

Great Britain 7.4 per cent of income; France 5.0 per cent; Italy 3.6 per cent; Belgium 2.5 per cent; Denmark 1.9 per cent; Ireland 1.1 per cent; Luxembourg 1.5 per cent; Netherlands 1.5 per cent; Norway 2.5 per cent; Sweden 3.6 per cent; Switzerland 2.7 per cent, and Turkey 5.8 per cent.

Western Comparison

These figures compare for the same period with 5.9 per cent of the American national income earmarked for defence, and 3 per cent of the Canadian. At the same time, the B.I.S. warned, the figures do not cover the whole burden of military expenses.

In addition to the figures in the national budget, a further $1,500,000,000 or more can be counted in as the American contribution to the defence of the North Atlantic and other powers under the military aid program.

The Russian figure amounts to about 10 to 12 per cent of national income, but here again, the bank says, the Russian method of computing national income leaves out many items.

In the other Eastern European countries, defence spending for 1949-'50 amounted in budget terms to approximately the same proportion as in the West, although a high of 10 per cent of the national income is recorded for Albania. Yugoslavia, which seems to be between the two worlds, devoted 11.5 per cent of its national income to the military in the last budget.

At any rate, it is a basic fact that more investment in arms means less investment available for the type of economic expansion that has been sought in the Western world during the last four or five years.

Whether the increasing load of defence budgeting will do more than upset future plans, whether the increasing load of defence will cut into the degree of prosperity already achieved, or will simply put a damper on future plans, should become clear within the next year.—From N.Y. Herald-Tribune.

Smiles

Professor—Didn't you have a brother in this class last year?

Student—No, sir, I'm taking the course over again.

Professor — Extraordinary resemblance, nevertheless!

Laugh and the teacher laughs with you;
Laugh and you laugh alone.
The first was a joke of the teacher,
The last was a joke of your own.

The justice of the peace, in pursuance of his duties, had to perform an occasional marriage ceremony. He found it difficult to dissociate the various functions of his office. Everything had gone smoothly until he asked one bride: "Do you take this man to be your husband?"

The bride nodded emphatically.

"And you, accused," said the justice, turning to the bridegroom, "what have you to say in your defence?"

"Little girl what will you do when you're as big as your mother?"

"Diet."

Tourist—Good river for fish?

Fisherman—Must be. I can't persuade any to come out.

UN Police Group Move Still Open

National Units For Korea Have Obscured Earlier Idea

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—The Korean war may lead to Canadian steps to back her United Nations obligations with ground troops in not one but two distinct ways.

It may also bring a new official statement on the present situation from the government next week when External Affairs Minister Pearson makes two speeches on the Pacific Coast, one in Vict Monday on "Canada and the Far East" and one in Vancouver Thursday which as yet has no title.

Mr. Pearson is expected to leave by train today and will probably fill out the drafts of his speeches on the long ride west. His office said it is not certain but likely that he will have something to say about Korea.

One question he could elaborate on if he wished is that of army support for the UN.

The current emphasis on national units for Korea, such as Canada's special force, has obscured but certainly not killed the earlier proposal "that the UN recruit its own police division from volunteers drawn from the reaches of the world—including Canada.

This proposal is under "exploratory" consideration and discussion in London, Washington and at Lake Success and Ottawa has been taking an active interest in it. Officials here feel something may yet emerge.

LARGELY OVERLOOKED

One largely-overlooked paragraph in Prime Minister St. Laurent's Aug. 7 announcement that Canada will form a special brigade group for Korea or elsewhere was one in which he said:

"There has been talk of a UN police division of volunteers and this may in time work out and be of value for areas other than Korea.

"If and when such a division is formed along lines considered practicable, the government will recommend appropriate Canadian participation."

That sounded like a promise to allow Canadians to volunteer for such a force. It was an unusual encouragement which diplomats are believed to be following up in the current discussions.

HIS TIMING WAS POOR

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—Pierre Ordonneau, a member of France's United Nations staff, started into a Madison Avenue haberdashery at the wrong time yesterday.

He met two bandits coming out with moro than $500 in cash and goods. They stopped long enough to take $115 from him.

U.K. Uniform Orders To Stay Secret

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 16—(Reuters)—The government has asked textile firms not to publish details of government orders for cloth to make uniforms under Britain's new defence program, it was learned yesterday. Publication of details might indicate the expected increase in the size of the British forces, it was explained.

Link Between Humans And Apes Discovered

JOHANNESBURG, Aug. 16—(Reuters)—The problem of man's evolution during the last 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 years may soon be solved as a result of finds by the world-famous South African scientist, Dr. Robert Broom.

Dr. Broom and his assistant J. T. Robinson, have found in the Transvaal two skulls which, they believe, provide a close link between the ape-man and the human race.

Both skulls, probably female, have brain cases about the same size as those of many modern men.

"Both are almost man, and it seems highly probable that man originated in Africa," Dr. Broom says.

Dr. Broom first came into world prominence in 1936 when he discovered the skull of an ape-man (or rather, woman) at Sterkfontein.

This new "missing link," till then the nearest type to modern man, was christened "Pleasianthropus Transvaalensis."

Further discoveries proved that "Mrs. Ples"—as she was irreverently known—was a small man-like being about five feet tall, who walked and ran on its hind legs and used its hands for manipulating tools and weapons.

CLOSER TO MAN

The latest finds, made at Swartkrans within the last few weeks, indicate a type even closer to man. Drs. Broom and Robinson, in a joint article, say the Swartkrans ape-man differs from the earlier examples in many particulars.

The scientists say the brains of both the new skulls are large. The teeth are not larger than in man.

"Pretty certainly," they say, "both come well into the human range. Above the eyes there are well-marked bony ridges, a little like those of Rhodesian man, but a little less robust.

"But as the jaws are huge, the temporal muscles have also been huge and have gone right up on the sides of the brain to the middle line. A well-marked bony crest is developed, such as is generally found in most male gorilla skulls.

"This character, we believe, has never before been found in a human skull."

Deaf-Mute Girl Killed By Train

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 16—(AP)—An eight-year-old deaf-mute girl was killed by a train yesterday, just as her brother was killed several years ago.

Frances Devine was struck by a freight while returning home from an errand for her parents. A five-year-old brother of the girl was killed by a freight several years ago.

Gold Travels Under Guard

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Aug. 16—(CP)—An armed police guard will be provided Thursday to start a tea-and-coffee service on its way to Canada.

The seven-piece service in 18-carat gold is to be exhibited at Vancouver August 23 and later will go on tour in 25 Canadian and United States cities.

The service, partly a copy of the historic English plate now on display in Windsor Castle, includes a tea pot, coffee pot, hot water jug, cream jug, sugar basin and waste bowl, resting on a 24-inch burnished tray.

The purchase price? At least $50,000.

Destruction Path Of H-Bomb Traced

100-Mile Radius For Burns If As Powerful As Said

By Howard W. Blakeslee
Associated Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(AP)—The hydrogen bomb, if 1,000 times more powerful than an atomic bomb, is like a fireworks piece that shoots more than once.

The first shot is a flash of heat at the speed of light. This shot covers a circle 40 miles in diameter with heat that can be fatal to anyone without shade. In Japan the similar area of fatal flash burns from the A-bomb was less than two miles in diameter, but it accounted for 20 to 30 per cent of the deaths.

The 40-mile circle is not the limit of H-bomb flash heat. In Japan the A-bomb flash caused serious skin burns up to 10,000 feet. This means that a thousand-fold greater H-bomb would burn the flesh painfully within 100 miles.

The second shot is blast or concussion. This is a wall of compressed air about 1,000 feet thick for the A-bomb, much thicker for the H-bomb. The wall is followed by big winds, blowing out and back.

SOME WILL TOPPLE

The blast will flatten nearly every kind of man-made structure inside a circle 20 miles in diameter.

The circle is not the limit. The H-concussion goes 10 times farther than the A-concussion, and at Nagasaki a barracks collapsed at five miles. Buildings near the barracks were unharmed. This means that in a circle of 100 miles some buildings will topple.

The H-bomb with this immense spread will be detonated several miles above the earth. If exploded lower, its reach will be shortened.

ssume a perfect H-hit on New York City, some miles directly overhead of Broadway and 42nd Street.

The blast would flatten all but the strongest buildings in all Manhattan. Brookly would fall, almost Coney Island. Northward the Bronx and everything to the north city limit at Van Courtland Park would go down. Across the Hudson, Bayonne and Jersey City would be destroyed and nearly all the great city of Newark.

MUCH DESTRUCTION

Eastward on Long Island the blast would flatten Jackson Heights, Forest Hills, Flushing and many other large suburbs. It would destroy La Guardia airport and even reach the edges of Idlewild, the new international airport. Fort Totten, on north Long Island's shore, would be at about the eastern limit of complete blast destruction.

Down New York harbor, the concussion would knock over the Statue of Liberty and tear down the buildings on the north shore of Staten Island.

Skyscrapers probably would not fall. Their walls would be blown out. Their upper storey steel ribs would stand bare and twisted.

Catholics Will Get New Dogma

VATICAN CITY, Aug. 16—(UP) — Pope Pius XII will summon a secret consistory for the proclamation of the new dogma of the assumption of Virgin Mary into heaven, an official Vatican announcement said today.

The announcement, published in the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano, said the Pope will hold the conistory Oct. 30. He will make the solemn proclamation of the dogma on Nov. 1, the Feast of All Saints.

It will be the first new dogma of the Roman Catholic Church to be proclaimed by a Pope since 1854, when the dogma of Mary's immaculate conception was solemnly proclaimed. The last dogma in 1870 concerned the infallibility of the Pope, and was proclaimed by the Vatican council, not the pontiff.

NOW OFFICIAL

The new dogma will make official what Catholics always have believed—that the Virgin Mary was assumed bodily into heaven immediately after her death.

This will now make it an article of faith, to be believed by all Catholics mandatorily, under pain of mortal sin.

The proclamation ceremony in St. Peter's church is expected to be the most brilliant ever enacted in the church. The Pope will make the proclamation before the church's greatest dignataries, the Sacred College of Cardinals and the Papal Court.

East Museum Director Gets Federal Post

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—(CP)—Dr. Loris Shano Russell, director of the Royal Ontario Museum at Toronto, has been appointed chief of the Zoology section of the National Museum of Canada, it was announced yesterday.

Dr. Russell also is associate professor of palaeontology at the University of Toronto.

This summer he is carrying on palaeontological investigations for the national museum in the Flathead Valley of British Columbia.

Church Writer Dies In East

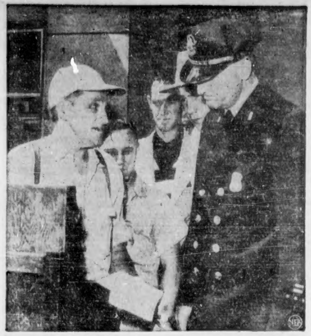
LYNDHURST, Ont., Aug. 16.—(CP)—Dr. William T. Ellis, 76, whose column, "The International Sunday School Lesson," appeared in newspapers in the United States and Canada, died Monday at his summer home near here.

A columnist for 52 years, Dr. Ellis in 1906 and 1907 toured the world, investigating social, religious and political conditions for a syndicate of American newspapers.

Russia Challenged Over Slave Labor

GENEVA, Aug. 16—(Reuters)—Russia was challenged yesterday to disprove assertions that she has 10,000,000 slave laborers.

Britain made the challenge in the United Nations Economic and Social Council, which Russia has boycotted because a Chinese Nationalist delegate is attending. A Canadian motion to adjourn the discussion until the council meets later at Lake Success, N.Y., was adopted.



DETROIT CITY Council recently passed ordinance making it illegal to sell subversive publications on public property, resulting in scenes like this. Isadore Berenson, left, who sold Daily Worker on street-corner stand, is put out of business when Police Lieut. Leo Pell, right, serves order closing down stand.

Loss May Be $1 Million In Distillery Explosion

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., Aug. 16—(CP)—A three-storey alcohol distilling plant and grain storage warehouse were destroyed in a spectacular explosion and fire which rocked this Essex County community last night.

Executives of Calvert Distillers Ltd., owners of the plants, could give no estimate of damage early today, although unofficial figures set the loss at close to $1,000,000.

Alex Traeff, plant manager, said he thought the fire was started by an internal combustion explosion in grain stored in the building.

The first blast apparently touched off nearly simultaneous explosions in four giant alcohol vats on the third floor, wrecking the roof and third floor walls.

BYSTANDERS SAFE

The only two persons near the building at the time of the blast—plant policemen William Clague and maintenance man Earl Renaid—escaped injury.

The blast was felt five miles away, and pieces of the wall and roof were found as far as 300 feet from the building.

Firemen, unable to check the flames, succeeded in saving a nearby bottling building, warehouse and two outdoor tanks filled with alcohol.

Aged Dean Inge Addresses Meeting

CAMBRIDGE, Eng., Aug. 16.—(AP)—The Magnificat, one of Christianity's greatest hymns, is more violent than the left-wing anthem, "The Red Flag," Dr. W. R. Inge, former dean of London's St. Paul's cathedral, said Monday night.

Ninety-year-old Dr. Inge, known as the "Gloomy Dean", when he served St. Paul's, opened the Modern Churchmen's Conference here with an attack on "hell-fire theology," several Christian sects and some Biblical language.

Underground Action

LONDON, Aug. 16 — (Reuters) — Moscow radio yesterday reported two Nationalist-directed underground movements in Tientsin, Communist China's third largest city. The radio said the movements had been smashed.

Copper Output Up Over 1949, Nickel Down

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—(CP)—Canada boosted her copper output the first six months of this year, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday, but nickel production dropped more than 6,000 tons.

A total of 133,296 tons of copper was turned out in the half-year, compared with 128,931 in the corresponding period of 1949.

On the other hand, 61,837 tons of nickel were produced in the six-month period, compared with 68,038 last year.

Probe Ordered Of Freighter Blast

LONDON, Aug. 16 — (Reuters) — The transport ministry yesterday announced an investigation had been ordered into the loss of the 7,319-ton freighter Indian Enterprise which blew up in the Red Sea, June 19.

The ship was carrying industrial explosives from London to Calcutta. Only one of the crew of 74 was saved.

U.S., British Forces Urged To Bolster French Spirit

PARIS, Aug. 16.—(AP)—United States officials in France are pressing Washington for a solid promise of aid to Europe in the form of United States troops to build up sagging West European spirts.

Their proposals are double-barrelled:

1. The United States should deliver at once, or promise to deliver quickly, at least five more divisions on European soil.

2. A commander, preferably an American, should be appointed to unify present undirected efforts at rearmament.

The same officials believe Britain also should agree, now, to send five more divisions to Germany or Northern France.

U.S. STOCK LOW

The crisis in Korea has brought the American position in France to a low point. The first blush of gratification at American intervention in Korea has been succeeded by a wave of dismay at U.S. reverses.

The French long have expected the strength of American arms—especially the atom bomb—to give them time to get well from the last war, and to rearm.

Americans newly-arrived on this side of the Atlantic report that the defeats in Korea have hardened American determination to rearm and, if necessary, to be ready for a showdown with Russia.

There has been no such reaction in France. Top French government officials are facing the problem to a degree that generally is pleasing to American observers. But a sampling of sentiment among the French population, brings no such responses.

The lack of a "will to fight," such as resulted in the French collapse of 1940, is in evidence again. Many Frenchmen solemnly weigh these alternatives:

Would another war be worse than simply to sit down and wait to be occupied by the Russians? Or would it be better to try to take a neutral course in the hope that Russia would not march into France?

The philosophy of "sit and wait" is widespread in France.

The French appear to have lost confidence in aerial bombardment—even with the atom bomb—as a means of stopping ground forces. The Korean experiences have helped bring that, and the French continue to remember how long it took the United States to get into the last two wars.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Bantam Ben Hogan, the miracle man of golf, is here to watch the filming of his life story. He admits that some of the story is too fantastic for the screen.

"For instance, some of the things concerning the crash are too unbelievable—like the officer who reported it having known me when I was a kid," he said in an interview.

He referred to the Texas automobile wreck in which he escaped death. More amazingly, he tottered back to win the United States open this year.

I tried to assure him that the Hogan comeback is enough of a legend so it could be believed on the screen. Ben said he was happy with the choice of Glenn Ford to portray him in the film.

Hogan added that his wife is delighted to have Anne Baxter playing her role.

FOLLOW THE SUN

The picture will be called "Follow the Sun." When Director Sidney Lanfield was trying to sell the idea to Producer Sam Engel, he told how the professional golfers travel from one tournament to another. "I see," said Engel, "they follow the sun."

The golf champ looks heartier than he did a few months ago and says he has completely recovered from his accident. Still, he'd just as soon not have to play 36 holes in one day.

"Everybody has a time in his life when he hits an obstacle and suffers a setback," he said. "I'm glad to have mine over. It could have been a lot worse."

I asked the master if he had a few words of advice for old duffers like myself. He thought it over and then replied:

"The only thing I can suggest is to study your game. Watch yourself in a mirror or take some movies of your swing. Or get some good advice. The trouble with most golfers is they keep making the same mistakes.

NO NATURAL PLAYER

"There's no such thing as a natural player. People say Sammy Snead is a natural, but that's not true; Sammy has worked hard on his swing, like any pro has.

"The natural instinct is to hit the ball with the clubhead as soon as possible. That's one thing you shouldn't do. You should hold off hitting it until the last possible moment."

LIVERPOOL, England (CP)—Janet Foster, 11, was congratulated on her courage at a court here. She saw a man running with a suitcase while a woman chasing him cried: "stop thief." Janet struck the man with a stick, forcing him to drop the case.

Duck Fence

DELTA, Man.—(CP)—The American Wildlife Foundation plans to erect a high fence around its preserve here to protect ducks from other wild life. Delta is at the south end of Lake Manitoba.

ON WESTERN CANADA TOUR designed to promote international goodwill is Canadian-American Schoolgirls' Band. Under direction of A. R. Thompson band will give series of six concerts in Edmonton, starting tomorrow. Pictured above are ten Canadian girls in band. They hail from Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and British Columbia.

Famous Schoolgirl Band Starts Concert Tomorrow

By Pete Crighton

An all-schoolgirl band dedicated to the cause of fostering world peace opens a three-day concert program in Edmonton tomorrow.

The talented Canadian-American Schoolgirls' band opening concert is a matinee performance at 2:30 on Thursday afternoon at Clarke Stadium. The program will feature a group of numbers especially selected for children.

The band concerts here are being sponsored by the Lions Club of Edmonton. Any profits realized from the band's concerts will be used to further the excellent work of the Lions Clubs in aiding Winnipeg flood victims.

A total of six concerts will be given. Five will be presented at Clarke Stadium, commencing Thursday with a matinee at 2:30 and an evening performance at 8:15. On Friday there will be one concert at 8:15, followed on Saturday and Sunday by matinee performances at 2:30. The sixth concert will be at 8:15 Saturday evening at the South Side Athletic Field.

FOUNDER OF BAND

The band was founded and is directed by Arthur R. Thompson of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Thompson did not have the opportunity of studying music during his high school and college days, and it was during his 42 years in the school teaching profession that he did his research in the instrumental field.

This spare time hobby later became Thompson's full-time vocation, and the formation of the Canadian-American Schoolgirl Band is a successful conclusion to a career spent developing the talent of potential young musicians.

WIDELY TRAVELLED

Previous to his present position he had trained and conducted the Sioux Falls High School Band for the past 20 years. This organization travelled over 26,000 miles on trans-continental tours with great success.

Thompson's purpose in founding the band is to foster world peace through international understanding and goodwill by the medium of music. Because of the high ideal of his dream, Thompson decided that only the use of the best musical talent would be suitable.

To obtain the best, he circulated thousands of folders outlining his plan to schools throughout the United States and Canada and personally audited over seven hundred tape recordings made by applicants.

FINEST TALENT

The 80 girls selected represent the finest talent of the high school music crop on the continent.

The band was officially dedicated at a service held at the International Peace Garden on Sunday, July 23, 1950. The dedication concert was attended by representatives of the United States and Canada. Representatives of the two countries who have set a great example for the rest of the world by maintaining unfortified borders and complete peace for 136 years.

Three Edmonton firms will play host to the band at dinner luncheons. On Thursday the Hudson's Bay Company will entertain the girls at their own Empire Room. Northwestern Utilities will do the honors on Friday at the Trocadero Ballroom and on Saturday the Macdonald Hotel will be the site of the T. Eaton Company banquet.

NEW COLOR PROCESS

HUBLI, India—(CP)—Dr. P. B. Bhagwat claims to have invented a device by which black-and-white films can be converted to color at a small cost. With his process, on which he has been working for 20 years, he says, the colors can be developed on the positive film.

CARDIFF, Wales—(CP)—Orders from Canada for 20,000 pairs of ice hockey skates have been received by Welsh manufacturers.

Bell Cast For Allied Berlin

LONDON. — (CP) — A bronze badge, worn for 10 years by United States ambassador Lewis Douglas, has gone into the making of the giant "freedom" bell which has just been cast in a Croydon foundry.

The bell, to become the symbol of freedom in a new crusade against tyranny and slavery, will be installed in Berlin this fall by the National Committee for a free Europe. It is eight feet high and weighs 10 tons.

While molten metal was being poured for the bell's casing, Mr. Douglas threw into it a badge he had carried on his coat lapel. It was a bronze torch, emblem of the American Fight for Freedom Organization he helped organize in 1940.

British Bikes

LONDON — (CP) — British exports of bicycles and motor-cycles during the first half of 1950 established a record of £15,100,000 ($46,810,000). Leading buyers of motorcycles were Australia, Canada and the United States.

Suspend Ukraina, M. Collingwood

The Edmonton and District Football (soccer) Association last night booted Ukraina out of the senior league, temporarily, at least, with all the authority of an outside right kicking a goal.

TOM GREEN

M. COLLINGWOOD
. . . He's Out

EDFA officials also suspended North Side Legion manager Martin Collingwood for the remainder of the 1950 season.

EDFA president Tom Green announced both actions following a special meeting of the association to discuss the rip-roaring match last Saturday between Legion and Ukraina.

At that time Ukrainia refused to take the field for the second half, contending that referee Syd Watson was overly partial to the Legion eleven. The North Siders were ahead 7-1 at half-time.

Ukrainian officials subsequently lodged a protest with the EDFA, complaining bitterly about the officiating.

However, the protest was thrown out on the grounds that Ukraina refused to complete the game. Then the Ukraina team and its officials were suspended for an indefinite period.

Officials of the organization are Rev. Fr. Dyrde, W. Holowka, M. Luchovic, captain S. Skocen and N. Archyshyn.

Collingwood, who received three cracked ribs in the scuffling which followed Ukraina's refusal to play the second half, was suspended for violating Rule 5 of the EDFA code. This rule says, in part: "While the game is in progress no . . . club officials will be allowed to coach players along the boundry lines."

EDFA bigwigs attending last night's closed meeting were Green, vice-president, Dr. K. Fuchs, assistant secretary-treasurer Leo Jarron and councillors Bill McLelland, Bill Gordon and Jim Weir.

Following is a copy of correspondence dealing with the matter:

Owing to the failure of the Ukraina Football Club to continue play after the first half of the game in question which cannot be condoned by this Association as this is a serious offence the Edmonton and District Football Assoc. advise as follows:

The Ukraina football club and all officers concerned are hereby suspended for an indefinite period.

Until such times as:

1. The Edmonton and District Football Council receive assurance that the team will be controlled to the extent that all games played in the future be conducted and terminated in accordance with regulations governing Soccer.

2. As the Edmonton and District Council are responsible to the city of Edmonton for maintaining order on the grounds, we must request assurance that the Executive of the Ukraina Football Club do their utmost to curb the overenthusiasm of a few of their fans, thus assisting us to this end.

Owing to the ungentlemanly conduct of Mr. Martin Collingwood, Manager of the North Side Legion football club on Saturday August 12th, 1950, in the game between Northside Legion and Ukraina football clubs, he is hereby suspended by the Edmonton and District Football Association from participation in Soccer for the 1950 season.

High River Pacer Wins

TORONTO, Aug. 16—(CP)—King P, a bay gelding owned by C. G. Taylor, of High River, Alta., came to life suddenly at Thorncliffe raceway yesterday and won handily as he was the medium of some heavy pari-mutuel pay.

Since shipping to Thorncliffe six weeks ago, King P. had been driven by Taylor and by Sheldon Forsyth, another Alberta horseman. However, Tuesday afternoon's driving assignment was given to Curt Baker.

The driver change proved beneficial as King P moved along with his horses, took the lead a quarter-mile from home and scored handily.

King P was quoted at odds of 12 to 1 until two minutes before post-time. A last-minute splurge of big money knocked down his price to six-to-1. He paid $15.20.

DUE TO RAIL STRIKE

Eskimos May Travel By Plane

By Dick Beddoes

Edmonton Eskimos leave for Winnipeg a week from tomorrow in preparation for the opening of the Western Conference on August 26. But they are not sure how they'll be travelling.

For the CNR and CPR threatened to go out on strike next Tuesday, thus paralyzing rail travel from coast to coast. In this event the football folks will be forced to turn to transportation via water or air.

The writer suggested travelling by H2O while discussing the matter with manager Al Anderson last evening. After all, the North Saskatchewan flows into the Assiniboia River at one point in its meanderings across the prairies, and the latter stream washes through Winnipeg on its way south.

In addition, water transport is cheaper and more scenic, although the Eskimos would be forced to leave a day early in order to keep their Saturday date.

Mr. Anderson listened politely to the idea. He then patted me on the head and told me to go home and rest up a bit, saying: "If the trains don't run, sonny, we'll travel by plane."

★ ★ ★

Eskimos drilled under the lights last night, concentrating on pass protection and pass defence. After three hours of this treatment coach Annis Stukus held a 45-minute chalk talk, which sort of rounded out a full evening.

Injured quarterback Lindy Berry was tossing passes. His knee ailment is not completely healed.

Swim Meet Postponed

The weather man evidently has exhausted his favors for city swimmers.

He did have the decency to hold off the rain until the Provincial swimming meet is over, but he cracked down hard on the meet that was to be held last night.

Edmonton Swimming club scheduled an amateur city meet at the East End (Borden Park) pool, only to call the thing off.

Splash fest is scheduled for next Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock at the East End pool, weather permitting.

Heinold Favored Over George Dunn

There are several interesting aspects to the Proctor Heinold-George Dunn fisticuffing which encroaches upon Edmonton fight fans this evening at the Stock Pavilion.

But in the scattered peat bogs and soda fountains on Bash Boulevard the boys mainly are asking themselves how long it will take the good-hit-no-footwork-to speak-of Heinold to catch up with his Hartford, Connecticut, adversary.

HE CAN HIT

For in workouts the blondish Heinold has impressed as a fine broth of a boxer who can dig his dukes into your hide with considerable authority. He is somewhat sluggish afoot, though, compared with the nimble Negro.

It is reported that Dunn can sock too, the latest to testify to this being Al Marotti, who absorbed enough punches from Georgie recently to wind up flat on his back in the third round.

However, the folks who regularly inhabit the Gym-under-the-Gem are inclined to make Heinold the favorite in tonight's jousting.

HE'LL BE READY

Dunn was equally sure of himself, saying "I'll be ready." He did not say what he'd be ready for, but he could have meant that slice of cash he'll get for obliging Mr. Heinold.

Meanwhile, a six-round special event on tonight's card could well steal the show. It brings together the highly-regarded Calgary lightweight, Ernie Kemick, and George Mazurenko of this city. This bout is a substitute for the Johnny Angel-Ray Caswell affair.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—(Reuters)—With two days' play left, England yesterday wound up the third day's cricket in the final match with the West Indies 221 runs behind.

They have six wickets in hand. The West Indies Momday piled up 503 runs, England Now is 282 for four.

Buffs Move Closer To Playoff Berth

CALGARY, Aug. 16—(CP)—Calgary Buffaloes all but clinched a play-off berth in the Big Four baseball league last night, when they pounded out an easy 7-1 decision over the desperate Purity 99'ers.

Buffaloes displayed some of their best clutch-hitting of the season as they got to Puritan pitcher Gene Wulf for a total of 11 well-timed safeties.

Biggest blow was a booming home run over the left field wall by first baseman Lloyd Jenney, which sparked a three-run Buff rally in the sixth inning. That uprising put an end to what had been a 1-1 ball game.

Buffs now lead the 99'ers by four full games, with the schedule due to wind up Sunday.

Winning moundsman was "Dude" Baldwin, who scattered six hits, struck out six and also gave up only three bases on balls.

Top hitter of the night was Claude Wheeler, Bison second-sacker, who connected safely three times in five tries.

Riders Cowie, Jim Schmied Figure in Gate Mishaps

By Stan Moher
Sports Editor

Considering the prevalent near-winter weather and sombre skies that formed an unwelcome backdrop for yesterday's race card at the Fair Grounds, it was fitting perhaps that two of the riders should have narrow escapes from serious injury, and possible death.

Apprentice Lynn Cowie and Jockey Jim Schmied, both of Calgary, were the saddlesmiths at whom the Grim Reaper took a pass only to think better of it.

Bug-boy Cowie knew that feeling while the field for the second was in the gate.

His mount, aging Meto Boy, all but tossed him over it's head, only quick action of the part of Tony Licata, astride Penny D. in the next stall preventing a mishalp.

Licata cooly reached over and grabbed Cowie, just in the nick of time. As it was the youngster received no more than a cut hand.

Schmied was tossed clear of the gate, just about the time starter Wilson Dunn was going to lift the latch to send the fourth on its way.

• • •

Schmied's mount, Delorett, suddenly reared over backward, not only depositing its rider heavily on the track but likewise escaping from the gate.

Start was delayed several minutes while it was determined that Schmied had racked up an ankle, no more. Delorette was reloaded, Schmied climbed aboard once more, and away they went.

The winner turned up in Dumbfounder, ($8.80) Stan Connell up, with favored Orbstir in the second slot. Delorette got nothing.

Schmied proved anything but 'plate-shy' by bouncing right back to score astride the 6-1 shot Out O'War in the fifth, what passed for a feature yesterday.

The Calgary rider had his mount clear of the pack in 10 or 12 hops and just sat chilly (no pun intended) over the rest of the route.

Blueberry Pie, the favorite, folded after going a half and Play Easy and Gallasha worked their way up through the field in the payoff stages to snatch place and show slots, respectively.

• • •

The win atop Out O'War was Schmied's second of the afternoon. Previously he had made himself a $35 riding fee by completing the daily double, with Sealane in the second.

Tacked onto a triumph by Nels Ings' Rough Kid in the opener, the resulting D. D. payoff was a picayunish $17.15.

Otherwise the trip to the winner's circle was made by Prairie Wool ($7.70, in the third; May Do ($18.95), in the sixth; and Sister Dolas ($16.10), in the wind-up seventh.

Had it not been for May Do and Sister Dolas, favorites or near favorites would pretty well have ruled the roost, on this the fourth day of the 14-day meeting.

• • •

Superior mudder Mataco (owned by 'Chattahooche' Smith) shadowed Sister Dolas to the wire in the seventh to bring on a 2/3 quinella return of $16.10.

Considering it was no day for man or thoroughbred, to be out, a surprisingly good crowd was on hand and mutuel play continued brisk.

Chart, P. 9, provides the breakdown.

Entry List Mounts For ACT Carspiel

Interest in the Associated Commercial Travellers car bonspiel is keener than a fast sheet of curling ice, according to ACT official Ted Mairs.

To date 51 rinks have entered the curling carnival, slated for October 31-Nov. 4. Last year at this time only 12 foursomes had filed their entries.

Maximum number of rinks that can be accommodated is 128. Entries received this week were from Wally Farrell, Bob Edwards and Verl Mowbray, all of Edmonton; Ed Aboussafy, Wetaskiwin, and E. J. Whitter of Prince Albert.

An enquiry has been received from Dunc Spence of Yellowknife. His entry is expected shortly.

All entries may be mailed to ACT headquarters, 10750-109th street, Edmonton.

Succeeds Earl Elsey

South Side Athletics of the Alberta Junior Football league have a new coach in the person of Don Loucks. The former Toronto Balmy Beacher succeeds Earl Elsey, who was forced to retire from the job due to business commitments.

Loucks played end with the Eskimos last fall and lined up with the Toilers in the senior men's basketball league.

South Side workouts are being held nightly at the South Side Athletic Grounds, commencing at 7 o'clock.

ALS' COACH DISSATISFIED WITH SQUAD

MONTREAL, Aug. 16 (CP)—Coach Lew Hayman of Montreal Alouettes, Canadian champions, said last night he is not satisfied with the team's showing in practice.

Hayman was hoping for United States reinforcements before the squad leaves Friday for two exhibition games in Western Canada.

He thought his backfield was "perfect" but the line and ends were poor.

Als will play exhibition tilts against Calgary Stampeders Saturday and Edmonton Eskimos Monday.

The Story Hour

This story is going the rounds at the track:

There was this fellow, who just couldn't pick a winner. Everything he bet on for weeks had finished up the track. He was desperate, as he finally confided to a friend.

"Why should you have any luck?", the friend asked with scant sympathy. "You don't live a good life. Why I'll bet it's years since you last went to church.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Thing for you to do is get yourself squared away with the Lord. Then things might do alright for you."

★ ★ ★ ★

So the next day found this fellow in church.

He said the prayers along with the rest, sang the hymns and chunked a buck into the collection plate. That night he couldn't sleep, waiting for a sign.

Next afternoon, as the first race went to the gate, he was parked in the stand, by himself, just reading the names of the horses and waiting for that sign.

It didn't come, nor did it while the second was being run.

However something suddenly seemed to tell him to bet No. 6 in the third race.

"I'll do it Lord," he said, looking up to heaven. Whereupon he went down and borrowed fifty from a friend and bet it on No. 6.

★ ★ ★ ★

Then he returned to his seat in the stands.

★ ★ ★ ★

While the horses were going to the gate to start the third he noticed that No. 6 was acting skittish. "Now Lord, don't let that horse get hurt before the race," he said. "Make him behave." No. 6 immediately straightened up, or so it seemed) and walked easily and quietly into the gate.

"Lord see that he gets away alright," this man went on. "He don't have to leave there first. But see that he isn't too far out of it either."

So the gate opened, and sure enough No. 6 got away in fifth place, saving ground on the inside as the field headed into the clubhouse turn.

★ ★ ★ ★

Then it looked as though he was going to get pinched off.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Now, Lord, make sure he gets through there along the rail." The horse in front moved over just in time and No. 6 headed down the back-stretch, lying fourth, and running easily.

"Just keep him cookin' that way, Lord, till they hit the stretch. Don't let that boy kill him off," this man implored.

So they came around the far elbow and into the stretch, with No. 6 still moving along in fourth place.

"Now, Lord, now. See that the boy gets him to runnin'. This is where it counts."

★ ★ ★ ★

Immediately No. 6 flattened out and commenced a charge through the lane. Quickly he got up to, and flashed past, the third horse.

★ ★ ★ ★

Now there were just two ahead.

A few more giant leaps and No. 6 had hooked the second horse and set out after the leader.

"Come on now, Lord. Yuh gotta give me one call on the front end. I've been waitin' for this one a long time."

And No. 6, fairly flying by now, edged up to the pace-setter, soon was at his throat latch, then was past and had opened up two lengths, with just an eighth of a mile to go.

"Okay, Lord. You've done your best. I'll take over from here on.

"Come on you . . . ."

DODGERS, ESKIMOS CLASH POSTPONED

Renfrew baseball action was postponed again today due to wet grounds.

All-star teams from the Recreation Commission's baseball school are now scheduled to play tomorrow night.

Following this will be the last Big Four league game of the season between Dodgers and Eskimos.

Eskimos currently lead the league with a one-game edge over Dodgers and a win for the latter would leave the clubs deadlocked for top spot.

Pitching chores for Dodgers will be handled by Morrie Hawkey, while Dick Lowe will be doing the chucking for Esks.

TED LEITCH PROMISING

Recent Alberta Swim Meet Rated Highly Successful

According to all reports, last week-end's Provincial swimming and diving meet held at the West End pool was the most successful splashing spree Edmonton has seen in many years.

Dave Sisson, superintendant of the pool, believes the calibre of swimming is again approaching old time standards. Judging by the number of records cracked (six) he can't be far wrong.

A lot of credit is due the Calgary entries in the meet.

These swim-fiends have no instructor, and no time reserved at their pool. Thus training must be done in spare time and without coaching.

Carman Bradley, big splash from Cowtown, was good enough to attend the British Empire trials at Vancouver last year. Bradley also took in the International Swim meet at Kelowna this month, making the trip at his own expense.

Speaking of instructors, Delrose Chivers, talented young Edmonton swimmer is coached by her pappy, Tommy Chivers, well known city instructor.

Ted Leitch, 17-year-old aqua star, has been swimming since he was old enough to pull on his own trunks. He's been coached by some of the city's best instructors. At the rate he's going now he will be a sure bet for dominion competition soon.

Ned Feehan, who dived his way to the provincial championship, wrote his bar exam yesterday. If he knows law like he does swimming and diving he'll be a tough opponent in the courtroom.

Doris Elliott, six time Wrigley winner, isn't the only swimmer in the family. Twin sister Doreen is also quite a splash gal. Both attended a Dominion meet and were right up there in the running.

Swimming isn't the only accomplishment of Marie Lee. She also is an accomplished tumbler and supervises playground activities for the Rec. Commission.

Margot Smith, new ladies' backstroke champion, originally hails from England. She qualified for Olympic competition but her move to Canada a year ago prevented her from attending.

Another Britisher is Fay Griffiths. Fay has been in Canada since 1947 and picked up her swimming talent here.

WHIZ KIDS Granny Hamner, left, and Mike Goliat help the National league-leading Philadelphia Phils no end as an extraordinary double play combination.

ROOKIE BEANED

Bosox Win Two But Lose Dropo

NEW YORK, Aug. 16—(CP)—Walt Dropo, flashy rookie Red Sox first-baseman, suffered a cerebral concussion last night when "beaned" by Philadelphia pitcher Hank Wyse in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader at Boston which the Boston American leaguers won by scores of 8-3 and 9-4.

Doctors reported inspection of wet x-ray plates showed no fracture but the husky athlete was ordered held for "at least a couple of days."

A serious injury to Dropo, who was sparked Red Sox most of the season and has been carrying the load since Ted Williams was forced out, could just about wreck any pennant hopes the Bostonians have left.

LEADERS SURGE AHEAD

Meanwhile the league leaders in both majors gained in yesterday's tussles. Philadelphia Phillies increased their National league lead to six games over runner-up Boston by trimming Braves 9-1 before 32,215 in Philadelphia.

Curt Simmons received credit for his 15th pitching victory but needed help from the ever-reliable fireman Jim Konstanty, making his 53rd appearance of the year.

Roy Campanella's second-inning single, scoring Carl Furillo from second base, gave Brooklyn Dodgers a 1-0 victory over New York Giants. A Polo Grounds crowd of 49,021 saw Preacher Roe edge Larry Jansen.

INDIANS SCALPED

Art Houtteman pitched Detroit into a more comfortable spot atop the American league last night, defeating Cleveland 4-1 before a crowd of 40,299.

But he needed some cool relief twirling from Marlin Stuart, Johnny Groth's grand-slam homer helped, too.

New York Yankees dropped a 10-5 afternoon decision to Washington Senators to put them four games behind the leading Tigers, But came back behind Ed Ford's three-hit pitching to down Senators 9-0 in the second game of the day-night doubleheader.

It was a story-book finish for Pirates in their 10-9 National league victory over Cincinnati Reds. Pirates gave up six runs in the top of the ninth, then stormed back with six runs of their own to win. Ralph Kiner hit his 33rd home run, with Johnny Hopp abroad, in the fifth inning.

For the second successive day, Chicago Cubs staged a late-game surge to beat the sagging St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2, with a two-run eight inning uprising before a crowd of 35,203. Stan Musial cracked his 17th homer of the season for the Cards.

Canada's Teddy Dies in East

TORONTO, Aug. 16—(CP)—Canada's Teddy, who burned up Eastern tracks as a three-year-old in 1948, died last night.

The thoroughbred was stricken with a gastric ailment in the spring of 1949 from which he never completely recovered, although he ran in a few races this year.

Canada's Teddy showed little promise as a two-year-old, but he came into his own after being purchased by Morris Fishman in his third year. He won the Breeder's Stakes and other top Ontario races as a three-year-old.

TRIBE MAKES TRIPLE PLAY BUT LOSES 4-1

CLEVELAND, Aug. 16—(AP)—Cleveland Indians pulled off the rarest kind of triple play yesterday against Detroit Tigers—one that started in the outfield.

Hard-throwing Bob Kennedy, tribe's veteran rightfielder, got his glove under George Kell's short liner just as it was about to hit the grass.

His throw to the shortstop caught a runner off second and the relay to first picked off another runner there.

The triple play didn't help Indians to win the game. They bowed 4-1 to Detroit.

Winner: b g 8 Royal Leon-The Nile. Trained by owner. Went to post at 4.03, off at 4.03½. Start good from Cowell gate.

Scratched: Mighty Queen 112, Yankee Trick 117, Hot Foot 117, Chic Pat 117, Great Leader 122, Easy Ace 122, Sir Brows 117, Fullotrix 112.

Overweight: Sundon 2.

Owners: 1 N. Ings, 2 C. J. Filby, 3 W. H. Ruller, 4 C. Janssen, 5 S. Kraft, 6 L. Mehew, 7 H. Fandry, 8 R. Beach.

Rough Kid was under mild restraint early and saving ground, moved to the front at will after three furlongs, drew out easily and won as his rider pleased. Sundon rushed to the front at the start, could not meet the winner's bid but held the others safe at all times. Southern Sam was on the outside while moving up in the early stages and closed well to the end. Murph's Patsy ran evenly. Tatting was soon done. Billy Vito had brief speed.

8047 SECOND RACE—1 1-16 miles. $900 claiming. Four-year-olds and upward. Claiming price $700. Net value to winner $585, second $180, third $90, fourth $45.

Winner: ch h 9 Diavolo-Frith. Trained by owner. Went to post at 4.30½, off at 4.31½. Start good from Cowell gate.

Scratched: Ron Albert 122, Lady Amber 112, Miss Blaze 117, Vino Tinto 122, War Vesp 117.

Overweight: Dunc's Favor 1. Corrected weight: Sealane 122.

Owners: 1 H. Stehr, 2 J. Strader, 3 Kane and McIvor, 4 K. Inamasu, 5 S. Simington, 6 A. Mathes, 7 C. J. Laboret, 8 B. L. Greenwood.

Sealane followed the pacemaker closely for six furlongs, went to the front when called upon, drew out entering the stretch and held Running Flag's closing bid safe. Running Flag saved ground all the way, raced within striking distance and finished full of run. Dunc's Favor made the pace hard pressed, gave way to the winner and tired in the stretch. Hi Meadowland could never reach a contending position. Dr. Monroe dropped far back early and was never a factor. Penny D was soon done.

DAILY DOUBLE—$17.15

Owners: 1 L. H. Pilling, 2 C. Foesier, 3 S. Haddow, 4 M. Cristall, 5 E. Bills, 6 W. R. Stevenson, 7 Little Bow Stable, 8 H. M. and N. H. O'Neil.

Prairie Wool quickly outran the field, began weakening through the stretch but outlasted Tiny Destrer. The latter was always closest up, improved his position after straightening out in the stretch and was getting to the winner in the late stages. Naggud was well placed from the start but could never threaten. Floxy ran an even race. Tonopah Clara ran away for a quarter mile before the race. She was badly pinched back after leaving the starting gate and forced to take up.

8049 FOURTH RACE—6½ furlongs. $800 claiming. Three-year-olds. Net value to winner $320 less $25 to breeder, second $160, third $80, fourth $40.

Winner: b g 3 Broad Meadows-Miss Swarthmore. Trained by owner. Went to post at 5.31½, off at 5.35. Start good from Cowell gate.

Scratched: Real Ebony 112.

Overweight: Orbstir 4, King Onslaught 3, Delorette 8, Dumbfounder 3, Gloverdale Joe 3, Lovewell 3.

Owners: 1 T. J. Southwood, 2 A. H. Hines, 3 Dutton and Jennings, 4 J. & Glover, 5 H. Murphy, 6 L. H. Pilling, 7 Meadowbrook Stable.

Dumbfounder, at home in the heavy going, raced within striking distance of the leaders until approaching the final turn, took command easily and raced into a long lead. Orbstir was also a forward factor in the early stages, could not match the winner's speed and was doing his best to save the place at the finish. Lovewell closed full of run. King Onslaught tired after a half mile. Ted H raced into a commanding lead in the opening furlong but stopped badly when the winner went to the front.

8050 FIFTH RACE (original sixth race)—MACDONALD HOTEL PURSE—1 1-16 miles. $900 claiming. Four-year-olds and upward. Claiming price: Gallasha, Ten Grand $800, Out o' War $900, balance $1000. Net value to winner $585, second $180, third $90, fourth $45.

Winner: b g 8 Outis-Waralii. Trained by C. W. Rich. Went to post at 6.06½, off at 6.07. Start good from Cowell gate.

Scratched: Lucky L 112, Prince Calvert 113.

Overweight: Play Easy 4, Out o' War 2, Blueberry Pie 5, Gallasha 3, Ten Grand 2, Prince Canter 1. Corrected weight: Ten Grand 109.

Owners: 1 E. Patton, 2 H. J. Percy, 3 Mrs. F. Carson, 4 McCarthy and Reidiger, 5 C. J. Laboret, 6 A. M. McMartin, 7 F. Gustin.

Out o' War went to the front at once, opened a long lead without threat and easily held Play Easy safe through the stretch. Play Easy was conveniently placed from the start, improved her position in the final quarter but could not reach the winner. Gallasha was far back as usual in the early part, came around the field when moving up at the last turn and finished best of all. Sweeping Manna was never a contender. Blueberry Pie raced forwardly under urging in the early stages and then failed to rally in the final quarter. Prince Canter could never threaten.

8051 SIXTH RACE (original substitute race)—About 7 furlongs. $800 claiming. Three-year-olds and upward. Claiming price $700. Net value to winner $520 less $25 to breeder, second $160, third $80, fourth $40.

Owners: 1 E. Hall, 2 Marks and Goldberg, 3 E. Bills, 4 Mrs. J. Rombough, 5 K. Inamasu, 6 H. Hale, 7 L. J. Gutenberg, 8 R. C. Bradshaw.

May Do, in a contending position from the start, improved her position steadily through the final quarter, engaged the pacemaker after straightening out in the stretch and came to the front in a mild drive. Better No Bet raced into a long lead in the opening quarter, held on gamely when tiring in the stretch but was not good enough. Sir Lochinvar could not keep up early but was going well in the late stages. Wilf Y lacked early speed, improved his position but was no threat. Superfine tired after being closest to the winner in the early stages. Clonus had brief speed.

8052 SEVENTH RACE—1 1-16 miles. $900 claiming. Four-year-olds and upward. Claiming price $700. Net value to winner $585 less $30 to breeder, second $180, third $90, fourth $45.

Sister Dolas raced under restraint while in a challenging position from the start, went to the front when called upon after six furlongs, drew clear and easily held Mataco safe. The latter was also well placed early, rallied well when asked for his best but was no serious threat to the winner. Pepper Pot lacked speed and only outfinished tiring horses. Even Trade could never reach a contending position. Watsco gave way badly when passed by the winner. Arbor Vita had some early speed. White Moss did not appear to favor the footing and was eased up when he bled.

Favorites Score at Coast

VANCOUVER, Aug. 16—(CP)—Exhibition Park, churned to a mire by week-end rains, dried yesterday and the favorites came back into their own.

Best win price of the day came in the fourth when Beatrice B led the field for six furlongs to return $13.35.

The daily double returned $16.05.

NBA Champ Is Winner

By Jack Hand

BUFFALO, NY, Aug. 16—(AP)—Ezzard Charles, bullied by mauling Freddie Beshore during the early rounds, stopped the Harrisburg, Pa., challenger in 2:53 of the 14th round last night in the third successful defence of his National Boxing Association heavyweight title.

Referee Barney Felix halted the contest with blood streaming from Beshore's puffed right ear and mouth while the crowd roared its displeasure.

NO KNOCKDOWNS

The lean Negro champion from Cincinnati, failed to drop the swarming Pennsylvania Dutchman, although he had him in trouble several times. Charles appeared ring-rusty and off in his timing after a 10-month layoff.

A disappointing crowd of 6,298 paid only $28,666.36 gross to watch the bout. It was the smallest crowd and gate in modern heavy weight title history.

Beshore's onrushing style of infighting bothered the champion no end. The latter fought in spurts, apparently not sure of himself. Gathering steam in the late rounds, he bombed Beshore with withering body and head punches.

CHARLES HAD EDGE

Referee Felix had Charles out front 12-2 when he stepped between the blood-drenched battlers. Judge Anse Carroll saw it 12-1, with one even. Judge Leo Stachowiak had Charles out front 9-3, with two even. The AP card saw 10-2, with two even.

The end came suddenly, just when it appeared that the 5 to 1 underdog challenger was going to last the route.

Charles weighed 183¾ for his title defence to 184½ for Beshore.

NEW YORK (Coney Island Velodrome)—(UP)—Billy Graham, 145¾, New York, knocked out Sammy Mastrean, 146¼, Pittsburgh (7).

A. Snyder Takes Honors At Olds Annual Fair

OLDS, Aug. 16—A. Snyder of Didsbury was top winner in the purebred Shorthorn class at 50th annual Olds fair, held Friday and Saturday, taking prizes for champion male, champion female, three firsts and four seconds.

Judging of exhibits and livestock took place Friday, with the Olds Derby and grand stock parade on the final day. Booths were set up in the main curling rink by local organizations while KBD Enterprizes and Gayland Shows provided the midway and grandstand entertainment.

Champion winners in livestock events were: champion male and champion female purebred Shorthorns, A. Snyder; champion male purebred Herefords, K. Rowell; champion female, W. Smith; Bank of Nova Scotia grand champion, J. Graham.

Beef cattle, champion male and champion female, Les Echlin; purebred Jerseys, champion male, E. S. Clarke, champion female, M. A. McKinnon; purebred Ayrshires, champion male and champion female, Bob Davidson.

Purebread herd, best dairy cow, L. S. Fisher; championship, J. R. Stevens.

Swine: Yorkshires, Tamworths, Berks, top winners, H. E. Royston and Betty Speechley. Sheep: Betty Speechley.

Summer Rains Slow Ball Games

ATHABASCA, Aug. 16 — Athabasca District, which suffered a prolonged drought period earlier in the season, has had rain almost daily for the past couple of weeks.

Play in the semi-finals of the Greater Athabasca Northern Baseball League has been seriously hampered, though Rochester has won its way over Prosperity into the finals. Athabasca won the opener at home from Fairhaven, but the succeeding games have been washed out in the best of three series.

Athabasca Mains Get Protection

ATHABASCA, Aug. 16 — The town of Athabasca last fall installed a completely new waterworks system and it was thought frost troubles would be put past history.

However, in some sections of the town frost for several weeks took its toll, so mains have been dug up and a five foot covering applied.

At its regular meeting arrangements were completed for the purchase of a new fire siren, to replace the one installed many years ago.

Children in junior high school grades suffer more eye injuries than any other group.

Coyotes are Menace

TOFIELD, Aug. 16—Coyotes are reported to be getting bolder in the Tofield district.

Several of the predators have caused considerable losses of sheep, chickens and turkeys from farmyards.

HAIL HEAVY AT HARDISTY

HARDISTY, Aug. 16—Severe wind, hail and rain struck Hardisty district and town Sunday evening in one of the worst storms recorded in the district.

Several farmers east of town were completely hailed out and many gardens in town were demolished.

Telephone lines were disrupted, many roofs were damaged and scores of windows broken.

Storm Wrecks Chicken House

TOFIELD, Aug. 16—A severe electric storm struck here Saturday night, giving high winds and torrential rains to the entire area.

Empty chickenhouse of Leslie McGimtie was destroyed by lightning. All chickens had been sold last week.

There is now plenty of moisture in the district.

Stettler Talks Hospital Rates

STETTLER, Aug. 16—Council of municipal district endorsed efforts of the board of Stettler Municipal Hospital to arrange a reciprocity agreement regarding local hospital rates and city rates at a meeting here Friday.

The council also decided to complete reconstruction of Big Valley and Byemoor Road.

Ball Game Scheduled

TOFIELD, Aug. 16—The colored team from San Francisco is scheduled to play here Aug. 25.

The opposing team will be picked from the Power Line League. Game starts at 6:15 p.m.

WANDERER BACK

Cold Coyote Capitulates 2 Escapes, 5 Miles Later

Judy's home again.

Prof. William Rowan's much-travelled coyote was returned home today after an adventure which has convinced her that life in the wild isn't all it's cracked up to be.

Three weeks ago the four-month-old pup disappeared from the Rowan's Southside garden.

Yesterday, five miles and two escapes later, she turned up near the home of Mrs. Jean Middleton at the Railhead army camp on 142 street.

She caught the pup and notified the Bulletin.

Investigation revealed she strayed yesterday from the backyard of Cpl. D. H. Oaks who lives in another part of the camp. She had been found earlier by the Oaks children—sore, cold and hungry in the bush east of the camp.

When she went wandering again she was having no more of this life in the bush. She stayed right within the bounds of the camp and soon came sidling up to make friends with Mrs. Middleton.

How she got across the river and over to the Railhead area is a mystery but Prof. Rowan believes the pup may have been stolen.

"I don't see how she could have crossed the river unless someone took her across," he commented after he was reunited today with his pet.

At the sound of the voices of Prof. and Mrs. Rowan today the young coyote immediately went into a happy whine-and-dance act.

At home she will be re-united with the rest of the Rowan managerie, which includes a flying squirrel and, until recently, a young cougar.

Prof. Rowan is head of the zoology department at the university.

The professor reported the pup was overjoyed to be home—but it looks as though she will stay on a leash from now on.

Rail Strike Would Upset Meat Trade

Agents Ordered To Halt Buying If Strike Starts

Complete dislocation of the city's major cattle and livestock industry will follow on the heels of a major railway strike.

If the strike is not settled and the ban on shipment of all livestock and perishable goods goes into effect at midnight Thursday as planned, country agents have been ordered to halt buying.

Freight and express agents in Canada have already been informed by the Railway Association of Canada not to accept any shipments of livestock or perishable goods after 11:59 p.m. Thursday.

If the strike is long drawn out, there will be a shortage of meat in the city as the majority of packing plants report only a normal supply of meat on hand.

Butter will not be affected for some time as the government has thousands of pounds in storage at strategic points throughout the west which can be moved by truck if necessary.

LAYOFF SEEN

Operations in the packing plants may have to be reduced and staffs laid off if the strike lasts, officials claim.

There is only a normal supply of meat in storage here as packing plants have been taking advantage of the demand and high prices prevailing to unload their stocks as fast as possible, said one large packing plant official.

Some livestock dealers say they will use trucks to move cattle to market from some districts where roads are good.

Bright spot in the picture: dealers say if the strike is long lasting there will be a surplus of cattle available and prices will drop when it is finally settled.

Blow to Alberta breeders and exhibitors is seen if the strike is called because they will be unable to ship to the Pacific National Exhibition in Vancouver which opens next week.

CANNED GOODS

Grocery wholesalers report ample stocks of canned goods on hand to meet normal demands for some time but fear a surge in buying by housewives attempting to stock up for future needs.

There will be no shortages here in the majority of lines if citizens do not start a panic run on commodities, they said.

Fresh fruits and vegetables brought in from the United States and other Canadian points will be hardest hit.

Perishable goods cannot be stored for any length of time, wholesalers say, and there will be a definite shortage in apples, plums and tomatoes which come in from the Okanagan.

Hospitalization Asked by Boyle

ATHABASCA, Aug. 16—Proposal to secure hospitalization in the new Athabasca Hospital was given by provisional members of Boyle district municipal hospital board, to Athabasca district municipal hospital board recently.

Members of the Boyle board, under process of formation, include D. Sadownik, Syd Alexander, J. Deigou and H. Witmey.

They intimated they were endeavoring to secure similar arrangements with the Lac La Biche and Radway hospitals.

It was decided to arrange with E. E. Maxwell, supervisor of municipal hospitals, for joint conferences with the organizations concerned to discuss the proposal.

Resultant from a plebiscite taken last fall, a number of portions of the original Athabasca municipal district at the first of this original plans of Athabasca district board for a new hospital were modified.

Ontario Delegates

TORONTO, Aug. 16.—(CP)—Provincial Secretary Welsh and Col. E. J. Young, executive assistant to Premier Frost, will represent Ontario at a Dominion-Provincial meeting on civil defence, scheduled to start in Ottawa next week, it was announced.

Fast Workers Dig Basement

BONNYVILLE, Aug. 16—Speed was the keynote at the recent meeting of Bonnyville branch of the Canadian Legion, as members started work on their new hall.

Members visited the lots available, chose one on town property and reported back to the meeting. The building committee then approached town councillors to obtain necessary consent.

The lot was surveyed and a 50-foot basement staked out. B.A. Construction Company stripped the top and began excavating the basement, the clay being used to build up the new highway passing through town.

With the co-operation of the town council, JAC Tennis Club Marshall Dolinsky and the construction company, the job was completed between 8:30 p.m. and 10 a.m. next morning.

Idea for the free excavation was that of Alfred Fortin, Jules Vallee, Bud Marchand, Lucien Mercier, Arthur Boisvert and Wilfred Jalbert carried through with it.

"KEEP EWE LAMBS"

Co-op Urges Farmers To Raise More Sheep

Rising meat prices and a general shortage of wool prompt the Canadian Co-operative Wool Growers to urge farmers to keep more sheep.

"Keep the ewe lambs and they will keep you," is the concise slogan of the campaign.

Special care should be taken, the co-op states, that no ewe lambs of the 1950 vintage get to the slaughter-house.

"If present owners do not need them to build up their own flocks," the statement says, "the young ewes should be sold, at market prices, to neighbors and friends who want to get into production of lambs and wool."

Good fleeces are bringing prices well in advance of those in recent years and returns from wool just about pay for the cost of keeping the flock.

Canadian farmers produce only about 20 percent of the wool required by the nation's manufacturers.

Racing Psychology

Psychiatrists Dr. Kenneth Hamilton and Dr. Sidney Spaner have been taking in the races at the exhibition track.

On that heavy track yesterday, Sigmund Freud would no doubt recommend wagering on nags with a pronounced "mudder" complex.

Psychiatrists might have helped a friend of mine the other day.

His mother-in-law had a dream in which the numbers two and six figured prominently.

So naturally my friend bet horses two and six for the daily double.

* * * *

Horses two and six ran as if they were dreaming.

As a matter of fact my friend says they seemed to be sound asleep all through the race.

So he decided then and there to repress Sigmund Freud around a race track.

He also decided to hit his mother-in-law over the head with a meat axe or some other suitable weapon. (Of course this urge had been buried deep in his subconscious mind ever since he found out his wife snored.)

* * * *

But Sigmund Freud's stock skyrocketed again after the last race when horses two and six galloped home for the quinella worth a nice juicy $35.75.

But my friend didn't bet horses two and six. That, unfortunately was no dream.

He still wants to hit his mother-in-law over the head with a meat axe.

* * * *

A horse named Blueberry Pie ran out of the money in the fifth race yesterday. Mud pie would have had a better chance.

* * * *

Aren't those gas radiants the handiest little gadgets?

* * * *

Hint to clothing merchants: What a spot for an overcoat sale.

* * * *

I've a special orchid tonight for Dr. Walter Johns, assistant to the president of the University of Alberta.

On second thought I think I'll throw in a purple heart, for holidaying with his family at Pigeon Lake. Remember doctor, that coal oil is good for frost bite and fishing through the ice is great sport.

* * * *

Also on holiday is Walter Dinwoodie, permanent secretary to the students' union at varsity.

Howdy Miss Howey

Yesterday must have been my day for hearing about, and seeing people who are on holidays.

I had a very pleasant chat indeed in the Mac cafeteria with Miss Dorothy Howey who now reports the social happenings for the Ottawa Citizen in what some folks say should be called Canada's national "yapital."

Bulletin readers will remember Miss Howey as women's editor of The Bulletin.

She is the daughter of John Howey, who retired two years ago as editor of The Bulletin.

It was nice seeing Dorothy again. She leaves Friday for Ottawa and the old grind.

* * * *

Here from Vancouver is one-time Edmontonian John Bernard. I used to go to school with John at Ritchie school about the year the Titanic hit the iceberg. It was nice seeing John again too.

* * * *

A very goodnight to all and especially to psychiatrists.

LEARNING TO FLY

Reporter Gets Wings Finds Lesson s Easy

(This is the last of a series of articles on learning to fly, written by a Bulletin staff man who took a course with the Edmonton Flying Club.)

By Stanley Burke

"Okay—you can fly."

It seemed to me there was just a touch of panic in Department of Transport inspector Bob Moore's voice as he indicated he'd had enough. But it was a great thrill for me.

We had just finished a nice seven-point landing—(we hit at seven assorted points as we grasshoppered down the field) when the inspector in the seat beside me surrendered and waved weakly toward the hanger.

I was in! Home free—a pilot!

WIND UP OF COURSE

This was the windup of the 30 hours flying course and the time for the thrill. I finished the course in 18 actual flying days spread over three weeks. [illegible]

In the final check-out, the D.O.T. inspector puts you through about everything you have taken up during the course—landings, takeoffs, sideslips, steep turns, forced landings, and maybe a spin.

Then there are also three exams which must be written on air regulations, airmanship, and meterology and navigation.

They are practical exams dealing with information of the sort that is really useful. They require a little studying up but they're not too stiff. In fact, Bob Moore told me they recently licensed a northern Alberta farmer who could hardly write. He had to be taught how to do multiplication in order to write his navigation exam.

More amateurs every year are learning to fly and, once you've had a taste of it, it is easy to understand why.

I have never got as big a kick out of anything as I have out of flying.

It's fitting that Edmonton should have the most active flying club in Canada. Two years ago a club member won the coveted Webster trophy for the top amateur pilot in the country and prediction is that it is likely to come back again this year.

Inspector Bob Moore emphasizes there's nothing difficult or mysterious about flying.

"It's far easier than driving a car," he told me. "Some people will learn faster than others, of course, but literally anyone can learn to fly safely and competently."

To Attend Ottawa Meet

Provincial Secretary and Municipal Affairs Minister Hon. C. E. Gerhart will represent Alberta at civilian defence talks in Ottawa next week.

Hon. Lucien Maynard, attorney-general for the province, who will be in Ottawa for the Dominion-provincial attorney-generals' meeting, will also attend the conference.

The Canada-United States boundary, not including Alaska, is 3,986.8 miles long.

FLOWER SHOW OPENED

BLOOM IS PRETTY enough but name puzzles Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs, at flower show last night. W. J. Cardy, president Edmonton Horticultural Society, explains facts about tuberous-rooted begonia.

Hooke No Flower Expert, But Quotes Flowery Poetry

Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs, is a brave and honest man.

Any man is who, officially opening a flower show, says he "doesn't appreciate flowers," is "no authority on flowers," "was never fond of gardening" and "can't tell one flower from another."

And that's what Mr. Hooke did say yesterday when he opened the 42nd annual show sponsored by Edmonton Horticultural Society.

FLOWERY POETRY

Mr. Hooke followed up his admissions of floral ignorance by mentioning a few facts on flowers through the ages and by quoting flowery poetry.

After his speech Mr. Hooke, accompanied by W. J. Cardy, president of the society, toured the numerous displays in market square building.

Like hundreds of other viewers, the minister wore a puzzled expression after glancing at names of some of the exhibits.

On show were tuberous-rooted begonia, asparagus sprengeri, salphiglossis, verbenas, calandulas, coreopsis, dianthus and sticks of rhubarb.

The last mentioned were the most easily identified.

FRUIT EXHIBITS

Fruit exhibits appeared as if they had just fallen out from cookery pages of glossy magazines. Apples, tomatoes, and plums gleamed under the hall lights.

Well satisfied with the day's judging was 75-year-old A. H. Ambrose, of 10249-117 street. For his nineteen exhibits he received 16 prizes. His blooms earned the bespectacled gardener seven firsts, three seconds, five thirds and one fourth.

Grand champion awards went to J. N. Donald, 11448-86 street, sweet-peas; Mrs. J. A. McAfee, 11330-92 street, rose; J. R. Keeler, 11837-90 street, decorative basket; F. A. MacPhee, 12410-75 street, novice gladiolus; C. B. Haggeth, 6721-111 avenue, gladiola; and Mrs. R. W. Miller, 7815-112 avenue, vase display.

Judges included A. Paton, vegetables; T. de Bourcier and M. Gramstone, cut blooms; A. Elford, gladioli; William Auchterlonie, roses; and Mrs. P. A. Rooney and Miss J. Fredrickson, decorative classes.

Winners trophies will be presented at 8 p.m. today by Mayor S. Parsons in market square building.

Eloquence Brings Fine

It's one thing to be talkative when suspected of being drunk and another to wax eloquent when pleading innocent, Sam Daniels, of Brooks, found out today in police court.

Daniels was arrested for intoxication following an argument at a downtown cafe Saturday night. Evidence was that he was "unsteady on his feet" and "talkative."

Daniels denied this was the case but Assistant Prosecutor Guy Beaudry thought differently.

"I'm suggesting to you that you were talkative because you were under the influence of liquor," he said.

Daniels, who had been vehement in his own defence, retorted: "Well how about now? I'm talkative now and I'm not under the influence."

The magistrate considered the difference in environment but found the talkative Daniels guilty, fining him $50 or two months.

Twelve Going To Blind Camp

Twelve blind persons from Edmonton, accompanied by five guides, left today for Camp Kannawin at Sylvan Lake.

Camp Kannawin is a special camp arranged by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind that will be in operation for Edmonton and Calgary CNIB members for six days. Volunteering Edmontonians will supply group with transportation. Fourteen from Calgary are expected to attend.

Canada's southernmost point is Middle Island in lake Erie.

65 TEACHERS TO ATTEND ATA MEET

Sixty-five teachers selected from all parts of the province will attend the second annual workshop of the Alberta Teachers' Association at Banff next week.

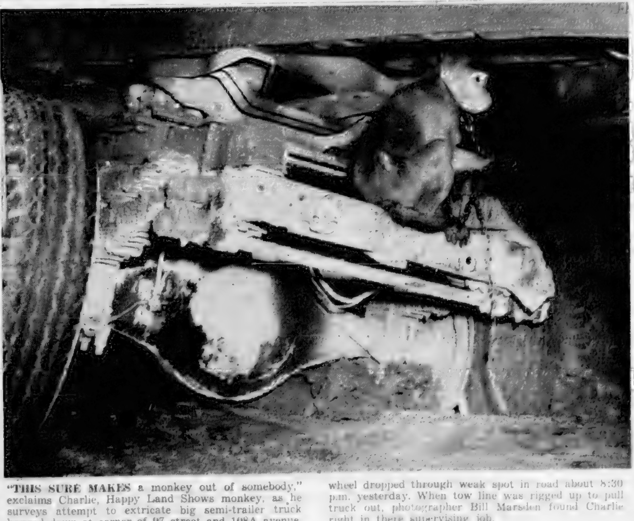
The workshop is conducted annually by the ATA for purpose of developing interest in extra-curricular activities pertaining both to the affairs of the teaching profession and the communities in which they work.

The selected teachers will disseminate their findings to fellow-teachers in their locals.

Edmonton Man Gets Fellowship

W. J. Brickman of Edmonton, has been chosen for a C-I-L fellowship at the University of Alberta, it was announced here today.

The fellowship is one of 13 awarded by Canadian Industries Limited at 12 universities and colleges in Canada for the purpose of encouraging post-graduate work in chemistry and related fields which lead, in most instances, to a doctorate degree.



"THIS SURE MAKES a monkey out of somebody," exclaims Charlie, Happy Land Shows monkey, as he surveys attempt to extricate big semi-trailer truck bogged down at corner of 97 street and 108A avenue. Owned by Veterans' Transport of Regina, vehicle's wheel dropped through weak spot in road about 8:30 p.m. yesterday. When tow line was rigged up to pull truck out, photographer Bill Marsden found Charlie right in there supervising job.

School Board Approves Work On 5 Schools

Improvements Cost $381,073, Board Says

The Edmonton Public School Board last night agreed to spend $381,073.[illegible] for the improvement of five city schools.

The improvements will include [illegible] Victoria Composite high school [illegible] schools, a [illegible] Calder school [illegible] to Victoria [illegible] steel playground [illegible] at McKay Avenue school.

ECONOMICS WING

In the extension to home economics wing of Victoria Composite high school, Christensen and Macdonald Ltd. was awarded the general contract for $109,109. Plumbing, heating and ventilating contract went to Lockerbie and Hole Ltd. at $27,533, less a deduction of $513.40, and the electrical contract to Sunley Electric Company for [illegible].

M. C. Dewar, city architect, submitted estimates that for the conversion for Ceramics purposes of the basement area below the Cafeteria kitchen an additional $3,-993.48 would be included in the cost, but elimination of venetian blinds and change to modern-fold doors would lower cost $904.37.

An estimated additional $4,000 would be used in the buying of home economics equipment, boosting the total cost of improvements to the Victoria school to $162,979.94.

Axel Johnson Construction Ltd. is to be awarded general contract in addition to [illegible] $101,995, providing [illegible] be supplied.

PLUMBING CONTRACT

Plumbing, heating and ventilation contract was given to C. R. Frost Co. Ltd. at $25,[illegible], and electrical contract to Sunley Electric Co. for $9,959.80.

In the four-room addition to Calder school, James C. Haddow received general contract of $[illegible] and Hallas Electric Co. an electrical contract of $3,091.35. Plumbing, heating and ventilation contract tenders opened were incomplete and were withheld pending further investigation.

Plumbing, heating and ventilation contract for improvements at Victoria Commercial school went to C. R. Frost at $7,418. Awarding of the general contract for renovation of the school is yet to be discussed by the property committee.

McKay Avenue [illegible] contract was awarded to [illegible] Wells Alberta Ltd. [illegible]

Report was submitted by R. H. Rae, ch[illegible] H. G. Turner [illegible] and W. W. [illegible] superintendent of [illegible]

TRIAL TRAVAIL

Citizen Sober, Drunk Drunk, Cop Castigated

A drunk, the citizen who was [illegible] and the special constable who refused to make the arrest figured in a $15-or-15 days police court drama yesterday.

But it wasn't the drunk who finally was charged. It was the citizen who, it developed, had assaulted the special constable.

According to evidence, accused Richard J. Andrews, fined $15 on an assault charge, accompanied special constable J. Verenka into a 103 avenue address to arrest the intoxicated man.

"I told him to call the police," said Verenka in evidence. He related Andrews then followed him outside, "became very abusive" and assaulted him.

Unity Urged By Korean

War in Korea should not cease until the partition between north and south Korea has been abolished.

If the United Nations choose to do this a united and independent Korea will be achieved, stated Dr. Tai Whang, native of Korea, at yesterday's South Side Rotary Club meeting.

Dr. Whang, post graduate at the University of Alberta, and member of staff of Charles Camsell hospital, has been in Canada 19 months.

THIRTY MILLIONS

He described Korea as being a third the size of Alberta, with a population of 30,000,000.

Many north Koreans who had vigorously opposed Communist dictatorship, were sent to Siberia or placed in jail by the Reds, stated the doctor.

He foresaw a great task of rehabilitation when hostilities cease.

Navy, RCAF Enlistments Reported Up

Despite Canada's big recruiting drive for the new Army special service force, many Edmontonians still prefer the Navy and Air Force.

North West Air Command officials report that since Aug. 1st they have received five times as many applications for aircrew.

The recruiting offices at HMCS Nonsuch stated that their volunteers from Northern Alberta had tripled.

Since the beginning of the month about 300 have applied for naval service, of these only one in 12 is accepted.

Alberta-B.C. Oil Rules To Be Studied

[illegible] regulations in Canada's various provinces will be discussed at the annual mines' ministers conference at Victoria next month.

Hon. N. E. Tanner, Alberta Mines minister, I. N. McKinnon, deputy minister, John Crawford, mines director, and W. J. Dick, secretary of the interprovincial [illegible] committee, are among Alberta government officials who will attend.

DISCREPANCIES

Existing regulations governing the oil industry show wide discrepancies in various provinces of Canada and are claimed to hamper oil development. Means of standardizing the regulations will be discussed at the conference.

Particular emphasis will be placed on discussions of relating Alberta and British Columbia regulations more closely.

Cave-Ins Will Take Week To Correct

At least one week of steady work by city engineering department workers will be required to clear sewer and gas line excavations caved in by Saturday's storm.

The sudden run-off in the two hour downpour Saturday night carried debris and mud into many excavations on city streets where utility lines are being laid. Sides of some trenches caved in from the force of the rain.

Push-Button Bombs Made for Home Help

By Bea Thrifty

One good thing has come of this nasty bombing business . . . and that's a new-fangled push-button spray bomb whomped up to help the helpless homemaker.

It's blitzing the Canadian market . . . with the news it masters jobs of "waxing a roomful of furniture in three minutes" . . . "washing smoke odors from the kitchen" . . . "mothproofing a suit in two minutes."

Sounds like a fairly good deal doesn't it?

Shoe polishes, rug shampoos as well as medical products to heal burns and dress wounds . . . are slated for future spray bombs.

Another newie bragged and boasted about in select circles is a synthetic sweetening agent that'll knock ol' sacharine for the proverbial loop.

Seems the new sucaryl, now being produced in Montreal, is supposed to be a hum-dinger in restricted and low-calorie diets.

That's for me!

It apparently has the power of sweetening foods without adding the forbidden calories or carbohydrates to the diet.

This means we of the dieters' dilemma may now include a variety of foods in our daily menus that were formerly restricted because of sugar content.

Incidentally . . . I've mentioned this before but we'll take another whirl at it . . . there are many sugarless tinned fruits and vegetables on the market for diebetic and other dieters who must watch their sugar intake.

But from dieting to a bit of gourmet's gabble let's have a fattening fling at the newly arrived tinned whipped cream.

And remember I said "whipped" not "whipping"!

I spoke of the amazing stuff, produced in Vancouver, just a wee while ago . . . and lo 'tis here to sell at 55c per tin.

A sale price of specialty-promotion will feature it at 49c soonish. . . . .

For the likes o' you who have a fancy for a bit of a freshening drink o' juice of an evening I have a tasty tip about pineappleade . . . if you please.

You take one-quarter cup of orange juice; one quarter cup pineapple juice; one half-cup water; one tablespoon lemon juice and one tablespoon sugar.

Make a syrup of the sugar and water, cool and strain fruit juices and serve the whole effort with [illegible] ice.

It's a fine 'n fancy fruit drink for children's parties too.

Another word to the wise about pineapples gives a clue to a new type of greenery for your happy little home.

If you plant the top of a pineapple in a jar of water (pint-size), said pineapple top will sprout into a lovely tropical plant in no time at all.

Tea and Coffee Are Not Good Milk Substitutes

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Adults, in general, are accustomed to the use of either tea or coffee with their meals. But the use of either of these beverages for small children is frowned upon by authorities on diet.

I. Newton [illegible] his book, "Superior Children Through Modern Diet", has this to say on the subject:

"Tea and [illegible] harmful of the habit-forming drugs [illegible] is not [illegible] cause of their content of caffeine. Caffeine [illegible] buoyancy [illegible] effect of depression. QUESTION OF NOURISHMENT

There is also another aspect to this question and it has to do with the relative nourishment of tea and coffee versus milk. Childhood is the age of rapid growth and children need the proper nourishment [illegible] fee lies chiefly in any sugar or cream added to it, while in tea it is negligible. Dress Color Parade
Sophisticated Black Leads the

Although coats have gone [illegible] in a big way, black is [illegible] tops when it comes to dresses. It's dressy sophisticated black too—partly because of the dress fabrics, partly because the new sheath silhouette is ultra-sophisticated in itself, partly because of the revival of beading, embroidery and braiding, plus "diamond" jewelled buttons.

So certainly your first fall dress will be black; black faille or supple black silk of some sort; black taffeta or one of the new all black brocades; black velvet or black velveteen; black wool or black worsted jersey.

Yes, it's consistent with colored coats—as a matter of fact it's easier to wear black dresses with those than it is to match or blend colors.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Parents Can't Hide All Life's Difficulties

DEAR MISS DIX: Is it fair to bring children into the world when everything is so uncertain? Some people, through no fault of their own have such unhappy lives. Is it worth while having children from the parents' standpoint?

MRS. L.

ANSWER: It is certainly as serious a matter to give life as it is to take it, and men and women should consider long and thoughtfully what sort of chance they are giving a child before they bring it into the world.

Certainly no one has the right to give a child such a rotten deal as to handicap it with the stigma of illegitimacy, or to doom it to a lifetime of suffering by inflicting on it hereditary diseases.

But if people refrained from having children until they could assure them a perfectly safe and prosperous journey through life there would never be another baby born, because there has never been a safe world and there will never be one.

LIFE ALWAYS AN ADVENTURE

Always, and to every child, life will be an adventure, full of dangers and difficulties through which he must fight his way, and no provisions of the parents can safeguard him.

No man knows what fate may befall his children. And that is what makes life interesting and exciting, and probably no baby, if given its choice, would prefer to come into a cut and dried world, no matter how safe.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

For THURSDAY, Aug. 17, 1950

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Be careful, wary of strange themes and watch your answers. The smart one will listen, observe and count ten before acting. Heart interests may be touchy; have tact.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Stimulating vibrations should be incentive to spur you on to fine efforts. Benefic rays all day mean you can work on that long-nursed idea, perhaps try new methods. But be consistent.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini) — Another excellent opportunity to make good in business, financial, professional tries. Be alert to what's doing, watch the other fellow's ways and you will be keener.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Nothing risked, nothing gained. But don't be reckless. Today has its good and not-so-good opportunities. Peak of good rays around noon. Facts and background should be your guide chart.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo) — Day full of different intervals, some benefic to well laid approaches, some better for restraint. Use hourly your innate sense of right and wrong and you can make headway.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Stimulating for personal and business undertakings. Explore your fields of operation, don't depend only on others' say-so. Real values are never easy to attain, but are worth the effort.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Most essential and long-range issues can make headway with proper handling. Many conditions pick up; added gains in financial matters. Romance, marriage should have greater honor.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Stimulating vibrations for business and professional activities. Industry, mining, construction and transportation speed up. Be practical and don't expect more than you should.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Moderate activity with a tendency toward change, travel, alteration of plans. Some unexpected pleasant news. Old ties may be renewed; better business relations may take place if handled correctly.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Avoid tenseness, worry (over position or anything), things will right themselves if you hol dto right principles. Outlook for personal matters good; stress better contacts now.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Not all encouraging for mechanical work, experimentation, but the urgent must go on. Be careful in routine, essentials. Act sufficiently [illegible] to be sure. Sincerelty counts.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces) — Here is a day for expecting big things and good returns from real honest effort. Aspects favor you who are well informed, up to your job, and willing to take sound advice.

You Born Today are under the sign Leo, with plenty of power, unction and a fun-loving disposition. However, you are likely to take offence too quickly, get self in trouble acting before properly finding out circumstances. Avoid impulsiveness and exaggeration. And honesty is best policy always for all of us. You are innately kind, will fight for loved ones, friends. Watch out for flatterers or those who play upon weaknesses, sympathy. Seek religion, education and you can attain great goals. 1950 interesting, gainful year.

Q—How do authorities explain the lack of trees in the Middle Western prairies?

A—Some naturalists think that these prairies were always treeless being too level and swampy for trees to grow. Another theory is that the Indians burned away the forests to make more grazing land for bison and to drive out game.

Q—Is there an estimate of the number of people under Russian control?

A—Russia has brought 830,000,000 people or about 40 per cent of the earth's 2,000,000,000 people under her control in the last 10 years.

Alexander Family's Friendliness Makes Warm Spot In Cold Night

By Barbara Fosdick

Standing on the station platform, the small boy threw his arms open wide in a gesture that would have done credit to a much older fisherman. "My fish was this big," he said, "but daddy caught a whopper."

"Daddy," Viscount Alexander, travelling with his family, made an overnight stop in Edmonton and it was here his young son Brian told tales of his great fishing prowess.

No photograph could do justice to the charm and dignity of the wife of Canada's Governor General, who, wearing a simply cut dress and exquisite pearls, chatted easily and informally with her visitors, among them Mrs. Sidney Parsons, wife of Edmonton's mayor.

CANADA KITCHENS CLICK

In their private car last night, Lady Alexander spoke enthusiastically of our modern labor-saving kitchens. "I have never seen any house, large or small, in England that could compare with the average Canadian home. They must be a perfect joy to work in," she said.

"Such friendliness and hospitality shown us by Canadians everywhere," she continued, "has made our four years stay just perfect."

Her pale pink and deep rose room on the train offers every comfort, but, she admitted, "after four or five weeks of continuous travel one does get rather weary and longs for home."

Homes have been rather temporary affairs for Lady Margaret, but she has been equally happy—living as a soldier's wife in Northwest Frontier camps in India, a wartime housewife in a modest Berkshire villa, or as chatelaine of Rideau Hall.

NANNY ADDS BIT

Staunch supporter of her employers, and incidentally of England is the "Nanny" of Rose, Shane and Brian who has been with the family for twelve years. Nanny, hearing my English accent, immediately wanted to mother me too.

Was I homesick? Were the Canadians good to me? and did I like it here . . . were just a few of the questions she asked.

"Rose," commanded Nanny, "come and talk to this poor girl from Somerset."

Why "poor girl" I'll never know, but I was delighted to talk to the obedient Rose who is an attractive girl of 17 with definite ideas as to her future.

She has completed a secretarial course in Ottawa and on their return to the capital hopes to persuade her parents that she is ready to go to work.

AMBITIOUS DAUGHTER

"And," said her laughing mother, "I'm afraid she will."

Viscount Alexander will fly with his daughter to Ottawa this morning. His wife, with her lady-in-waiting, Miss Anstice Gibbs, leaves today for Banff.

There they will await the return of Shane and Brian, who, with two friends, David Scott and Roger Gibb, are off to seek adventure in the Yukon.

GUESTS at the Macdonald Hotel this week include Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Moffat of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. C. Kinnear of Toronto and Mrs. L. A. Cavanaugh of Calgary.

ON ARRIVAL in Edmonton with her husband, Canada's Governor General, and her three children, Lady Alexander (front) was greeted by Mrs. Sidney Parsons. Mayor Parsons and his wife, welcomed Alexanders on their brief visit to city.

TV Success Calls For Moderate Look

LONDON, Aug.—(CP)—A British television producer has listed these qualifications for showgirl success in TV:

Medium height, fairly small thighs, straight legs and a medium or [illegible].

Recent tests have shown, he said, that girls with bony shoulders, arms, legs and faces show up poorly on the TV screens. Bones throw shadows that cannot be disguised.

Showgirls appear foreshortened on [illegible]

Perfume Points

To remove glass stopper from that lush new bottle of fall perfume run a lighted match round neck. Heat will cause bottle to expand and loosen stopper.

And if you want to fill a small bottle from the large one do as the salesgirls do and use an eye dropper.

45 Prizes Won By Well-Known City Gardener

Flower show prizewinner 45 times, Mrs. James McAfee went home a proud and tired gardener last night.

Winner of the Gladys Muttart "Best Rose in the Show" trophy and four others, Mrs. McAfee managed to carry off 45 additional prizes.

"I was glad the final score came after I picked my roses for the show. A day sooner and I wouldn't have been able to stand the strain or the disappointment," said Mrs. McAfee last night.

Flower show, sponsored by Edmonton Horticultural Society, continues today at city market.

Hostesses Busy Entertaining For Bride-Elect

Several hostesses have entertained recently in honor of bride-elect Miss Barbara Ruth Hansford, whose marriage to Donald Lindsay Hay takes place August 26.

Miss Jean Sawdon entertained fellow members of the January graduating class of the University of Alberta School of Nursing at miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. J. M. Mitchell. With a hook, guest of honor "fished" for her gifts from decorated basket.

Mrs. E. J. Holland and her daughters Ruth and Eunice were shower hostesses one evening. Gifts from the 12 guests were presented in decorated basket. Tea table was decorated with sweetpeas and pink tapers. Mrs C. Jamieson assisted the hostess.

Another evening Mrs. A. E. Aitken entertained at miscellaneous shower at her home. Gifts were presented in wishing well and each guest wished for the bride and bridegroom-elect as they drew out a gift. Mrs. M. MacQuay and Miss Adele MacQuay assisted the hostess in serving the 18 guests.

U.S. Government Sets Standards For Bakers' Bread

WASHINGTON Aug. 16 — (AP) — A proposed national standard for bread—setting forth what the family loaf should contain and in what quantities—has been announced in the United States federal register.

Breads made from white flour mixed with whole wheat flour or with cracked wheat or crushed wheat would have to be properly identified in their names as to the wheat ingredients used, and could not be sold simply as "wheat bread."

Milk bread would have to contain milk or non-fat dried milk solids and milk fat in prescribed amounts as the wetting ingredient instead of water.

Buyer Resistance Sought As Measure Of Control

"Flagrant price increases indicate inflation conditions which must be controlled" said CAC executives following their meeting last night.

"Buying public can help the situation by resistance shopping."

President Mrs. [illegible]

RETROACTION ASKED

"If controls are re-imposed, they should be effective retroactive to June 1 1950."

These conlusions were drawn after discussion on study of combines, flour, bread, coffee, beef, chocolate bar prices.

From a study made of combines, using national government literature and local investigation, CAC executives concluded flour and bread prices, with few exceptions are to high.

AVAILABLE AT LESS

"Good bread is available at lower prices. CAC suggests consumers buy bread selling for less than 13c per loaf."

Beef prices question prompted presentation of Retail Merchants Federation facts: "During past year only 6.4 per cent of Canadian beef was graded A (red brand) and 12.3 per cent graded B (blue brand)" "Canada exported to U.S.A. 12 million more pounds of dressed beef than preceeding year."

In view of these facts, CAC objects to paying 90c per pound for sirloin steak and other prices in range.

200 PER CENT INCREASE

Said one member "one popular low-priced coffee increased 200 per cent in price in past year. Is such increase justified?"

"If price of margerine continues to climb there soon won't be a margerine problem", said the executive in body." People will buy butter".

Chocolate bar topical discussion concluded with statement: When chocolate bar prices were reduced to 5c, the size was also reduced. If children now have to pay 7c for their bars, former size should be restored.

MORE BAR

When told increase is caused by cocoa price shift and increased cost of packaging the CAC says: What we want is less package and more bar!

Annual meeting of local CAC branch will be held at YWCA Sept. 14 at 8 p.m. An open meeting, all consumers are invited to attend.

Calendar

Jewel Rebekah Lodge 35 will hold social evening after lodge meeting tomorrow at 8:30 p.m.

TRADITIONAL CAKE-CUTTING ceremony is carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arthur Hayden at reception in Corona Hotel following their recent wedding in All Saints' Cathedral. Bride, former Moira Evans, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans of Edmonton.

Double-Ring Ceremony For Villett-Barr Vows

Weddings rings were exchanged early Saturday afternoon between Miss Jean Isobel Barr and George Adam Villett in McDougall United Church.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ross Cliffe of Red Deer and the late John Barr of Sexsmith. Bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Villett.

Bridegroom's father was assisted by Rev. Wesley Bainbridge in performing the ceremony.

Bride was given in marriage by her brother, David Barr. She wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with panels of chantilly lace, wide bertha collar and lily-point sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from head-dress of orange blossoms. She carried white Bible with red roses and stephanotis.

TWO ATTENDENTS

Mrs. Frank Gross was matron of honor and Miss Inex Kresge was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in ankle-length gowns of tootal lace over taffeta of pink and blue respectively. Each had a braided coronet and carried nosegay of sweetpeas and carnations.

Audrey H. Villet attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Sylvan Villett, Frank Gross, Jack Waines, and Hinds Agnev.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. S. R. Keeling. At the beginning of the service, Mrs. Madge Smith sang "O Perfect Love," and during the signing of the register, "O, Joy Be Thine."

Wedding reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Mrs. Villett received her guests in [illegible] with white accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

THREE-TIERED CAKE

Bride's mother wore ankle-length afternoon dress of leaf green. She chose black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. D. C. [illegible] and Mrs. [illegible] Powers. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. E. J. McInnis, Mrs. H. E. Villett, Mrs. J. N. Martin, Barbara Gowers, Isobel Broad, Betty Haining, Joyce Love, Carlie Jean Martin, Frances Kadnec and [illegible] McVeety.

Following honeymoon in Vancouver, newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton. For travelling, bride wore apple green gabardine suit with cherry accessories.

Sisters Take Their Matrimonial Leap In Double Wedding Ceremony Recently

Wearing identical gowns, two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Bell of Edmonton, became brides in double wedding ceremony, performed by Rev. E. Bailey in McDougall United Church recently.

Against a setting of bright gladioli, Lorraine Cora exchanged rings with Al Gear Wolff, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Wolff of Clairmont, and Thelma Lillian with William Stanley Robins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robins of Edmonton.

Thelma was given in marriage by her father and Lorraine by her brother, Mervin. Their train length gowns were of white satin with nylon yokes and lilypoint sleeves. Small coronets held their fingertip veils. They carried red roses.

Bridal attendants were Elizabeth Robins, Dorothy Gibson and Patricia Daffney in gowns of lavender, lemon and blue. Little Merylin Rofoss in pink net, was flower girl. Fred Robins and Kenneth Bell as train bearers, wore navy blazers with white shirts and bow ties.

Carman Bell and Bryce Wolff attended bridegrooms. Ushers were David Wolff and Leslie Robins.

Acacia Hall was decorated for reception with silver bells and gladioli. Mrs. Bell received in blue sheer with black and white accessories and corsage of red roses. Mrs. Robins chose grey crepe with pink accessories for her son's wedding and wore pink roses. Mrs. Wolff wore black and sheer white, with grey and white accessories. Her corsage, red and white roses.

MOUNTAIN HONEYMOON

Both couples left for honeymoon in Jasper, brides changing to grey suits with orchid corsages for travelling. On their return they will make their homes in Edmonton.

Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rofass, Conquest, Sask.; E. Rofass of Saskatoon; Peter Coffney and Patsy of Conquest, Sask.; Mervin Bell, Newdale, Man.; Carman and Eldon Bell, Outlook, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Bell and Kenneth, Outlook, Sask.; C. Idea for Saving Gleam on Floors

Your floors are newly polished, all bright and shiny; and the children are suddenly clamoring to make cut-outs, to paint and to crayon.

Don't despair. The children can have their fun and you can have shiny floors. Spread large piece of oilcloth on the floor, and let children cut out, paste, or paint to their heart's desire.

When they've finished shake bits of paper into wastepaper basket and if necessary, wipe oilcloth with damp cloth.

There are three coinage mints in the United States, located at Philadelphia, Denver, and San Francisco.

You Can Drink Your Milk and Eat It Too

Mashed potatoes, sweet variety as well as white have plus appeal, when whipped up with evaporated milk straight from can. Elegant filling for crackers, peanut butter and canned sweetened condensed milk, blended together.

If you're watching the scales, consider 165 calories in glass of whole milk as compared with 85 in fresh fluid skim, dry skim, or buttermilk. A painless way to cut down on calories without cutting down on calcium.

Helium gas first was recognized in the sun during a total eclipse in 1868. It was named from the Greek word for sun.

Not All Dinosaurs Were Big As Houses

What were the Dinosaurs that occupied the ancient world really like?

Dr. W. E. Swinton of the British Museum of Natural History recently went to Canada and the United States to study their collections of Dinosaurs and compare them with European ones. In a BBC talk he told listeners something about these pre-historic creatures which were the dominant land animals for nearly a hundred million years.

The first misconception he corrected was that all Dinosaurs were huge. Some were enormous but others were as small as a collie dog. They were all reptiles, distant relatives of snakes and lizards and rather closer relatives of crocodiles.

They were cold blooded, often scaly in appearance and the females laid eggs. They are known from the fossilized remains, the only contact between them and modern man, for the last Dinosaur had been dead at least sixty million years before the first man appeared.

MANY DIFFERENT

Nearly a hundred different kinds of Dinosaurs, who adapted themselves to various ways of life, have been found in England. Dr. Swinton distinguished them in the easiest way, by their habits.

There were flesh eaters with two short fore limbs and two strong hind ones on which they walked. Their toes and fingers were clawed and they had one row of sharp knife-like teeth. Some were small, some more than ten feet high, the climax of their development being reached in Tyrannosaurus, nearly fifty feet long from his snout to the tip of his tail.

LONG NECKS

These flesh-eaters were closely related to an even larger vegetarian group, with very long necks and tails and elephantine bodies. These animals still had long hind legs but walked on all fours.

Some were only 13 feet long, the famous Brontosaurus was between 40 and 60 feet, whilst the biggest of all Diplodocus measured nearly 90 feet and probably weighed 25 tons. They spent much time in lakes and rivers where they used their strong teeth on the softish vegetation and their claws to grasp a foothold.

THIRD GROUP

A third group of Dinosaurs walked erect and had beaked mouths and teeth suited for feeding on the evergreen palm like vegegation of the time. Some of the smaller kind, known from Britain's Isle of Wight, may have climbed trees. The remains of the first Dinosaur ever found, discovered in Sussex in 1822 were of this kind.

The fourth group, four-legged cousins of the beaked animals and up to 20 feet long, were called armoured Dinosaurs because of the bony plates and spikes they bore. Some were entirely covered with such things, others had a double row of plates along the centre of the back, others had spikes on the face and brow and a great frill of bone over the neck.

Sincerely

Joan Walker

LET'S STOP THIS RAILWAY STRIKE!

A strike on Canada's railways would be, at any time, a tragedy. Today, as we prepare to meet the threat of expanding military aggression, such a strike would mean national disaster.

The Boards of Conciliation, which reviewed in detail all the facts of the dispute, said in their report:

> "It is our firm opinion that the recommendations herein contained embody the utmost in the way of concessions which the railways ought to grant at this time."

Yet, the railways offered the unions concerned in this dispute a settlement far more generous than the Boards' recommendations.

HERE IS WHAT WE HAVE DONE

Our offer, which we published in detail, included these benefits for our employees:

(1) A shorter work week for the great majority, with no loss of pay
OR (if the unions prefer)
A substantial increase in "take home" pay.
These higher hourly rates would result in higher overtime rates.

(2) Acknowledgement by the railways of a moral obligation to put the 5-day 40-hour week into effect at the appropriate time. The Board of Conciliation said this: "The 40-hour week is not in Canada, as it is in the United States, the normal work week. On the contrary, the evidence before the Board indicates that the 40-hour week is very rare in Canadian industry."

(3) Separate consideration to be given the claims of hotel and water transport employees on merit.

WHEN APPLIED TO ALL EMPLOYEES, THESE BENEFITS WOULD COST THE RAILWAYS APPROXIMATELY $37,000,000 A YEAR

THE TIME IS NOW!

The welfare of every Canadian is involved in this critical dispute. The Board of Conciliation said: "In the consideration of increases of this magnitude in railway wage scales there is, besides the employers and the employees who conduct the negotiations, a third party, unheard at the council tables, whose rights must be weighed — the ordinary Canadian citizen." Let's stop this railway strike NOW! The time to do this is not at the eleventh hour, or after a strike begins. The time is NOW!

EDMONTON, Aug. 16—Total receipts: cattle 736, calves 205, hogs 501, sheep 87.

Wednesday's fairly heavy receipts offered very few top butcher cattle for the early part of the auction. Early sales seemed barely steady on most killer classes, with butcher cattle selling about .50 lower than Tuesday.

One truck load of choice grain fed steers sold Tuesday at 31.50. The bulk of steers offered were no better than medium to good killers and selling at 26.00 to 29.00. Lightweight butcher heifers of medium quality bringng 24.00 to 28.00. One small lot sold up to 29.00 yesterday.

Butcher cows clearng at 19.00 to 20.00; weighty bologna bulls 20.00 to 22.75. Veal calves were steady at a peak of 32.00; the bulk of good handyweights going at 28.00 to 31.00.

Stocker and feeder cattle continued in strong demand at fully steady prices. Good feeder steers bringing 23.00 to 25.50; stock heifers 19.00 to 22.50.

Hogs were steady, grade A for shipment 34.00; sows 19.25 and stags 15.00 liveweight. Lambs steady, good handyweight off truck bringing 24.00 to 25.50 and off car 25.50 to 26.50.

OIL

Turner Valley Type Oil Field Looming

By C. V. Myers
Bulletin Oil Editor

A Turner Valley type oil field appeared to be developing in the Spring Coulee area of Southern Alberta early today as National Courdasun No. 1 gave up light green oil mixed with drilling mud on drillstem test.

The well tested the 50 foot zone 6,142 to 6,192 feet and got a rise of 200 feet of fluid about three quarters of which was light green crude of the same type as the National Malmberg three miles to the north.

Core analyses showed the porosity to be much the same as in Turner Valley. In the valley field drillstem tests often fail to show any results and indeed are seldom taken.

Like most valley wells the Malmberg discovery was not even tested until a acid wash had been delivered.

RUNNING PIPE

"We are running pipe tonight," said Ben C. W. Hyde president of Centennial Oil Company and Kansas City oil operator who took the 80 acre farmout from National. "We may still be 100 feet above the water line but this is good enough for us."

Dixon Kelly managing director of Centennial said that pipe would be set at 6,142 feet and the entire 50 zone to 6,192 feet jet acidized.

He said it would take three days for the cement to set but tanks would be erected in the meantime and acidization would take place probably Monday.

Mr. Kelly said the well had proved up a minimum of 50 locations between the Malmberg discovery and Centennial.

3 MILES SOUTH

The Centennial well is three miles due south of Malmberg.

"I would say that from the seismic picture plus all the subsurface contour control this well proves all the intervening land between the wells," Mr. Kelly said.

Neither Kelly or Hyde would guess at the size of the well, but they said there was no doubt that it would be commercial and it might be large.

This made the National Calvan Tower well look like a sure shot also.

It is situated on the same structure and is about 50 to 60 feet higher than the Malmberg well, midway between the two wells and about a half mile to the east.

All wells are located on the same structural trend which runs a distance of more than 20 miles from the Montana border into the Blood Indian reserve southwest of Lethbridge.

It is a continuation of the same structural trend which gave rise to Cutbank Kevin Sunburst, and Pondera in Montana. Kevin, also a Madison field has produced 53,000,000 barrels of oil. Turner Valley has yielded over 100,000,000 barrels.

The structure was being tested 11 miles to the southeast of Malmberg by National Cordasun Milk River No. 1.

The Milk River well hit the lime at 5,162 feet yesterday afternoon.

A 15 foot core was being taken last night and core barrel was coming out about 1 a.m. today. Cuttings at the top had a strongly petroliferous odor.

The national Calvan Tower well was ready to resume drilling at 5,745 feet last night. It was slated to start coring late Thursday or Friday morning.

Spudding in of Schultz No. 1, third attempt for oil riches by the Edmonton independent, Miller, Pyrcz and Roberts, was reported Tuesday.

The company struck oil twice in two recent attempts and termed the outlook for Schultz No. 1 "very promising."

In their last drilling venture, Miller, Pyrcz and Roberts brought in Dewar No. 1 at the southeast end of the Leduc field extending the known limits by a mile. Schultz No. 1 is a quarter mile south of the other well.

AT 5,250 LEVEL

Dave Pyrcz, one of the partners, said they hoped to strike oil in the D-2 zone, at about the 5,250 level.

A fourth venture is already planned on the southern perimeter of the Leduc field by the company.

Next week, they start drilling Tenn-Leduc No. 1, midway between the southern limit of Leduc and the Oil City Petroleums well, 1½ miles further to the south.

Cal Standard Acheson, a few miles north and a little east of Imperial Stony Plain, was coring at 4,690 feet and presumably in D-2. The well had made 40 feet coring since the day before.

Several tests have been made in the Viking and the Lower Cretaceous. There was gas in the Viking and some results were also obtained in the Lower Cretaceous, but nothing official has yet been released on the well.

Imperial's D-2 contact came at about 4,777 feet. Acheson is logging reportedly about 100 feet higher.

Production of crude oil and natural gasoline in Alberta during June totalled 2,043,792 barrels, the [illegible] Conservation Board reported today.

This compared with 1,808,504 in May and 1,591,260 during June last year. Higher totals were recorded during the winter.

The production was obtained from 1,346 of the 1,574 wells capable of being operated during June, and was worth $6,131,328 to producers.

Redwater produced the most oil with a total of 751,070 barrels.

Canada Looms As Bulwark Of Democratic Food Supply

OTTAWA, Aug. 16—(CP)—Canada truly promises to be the food stronghold of democracies faced with the threat of total war.

With her own yearly wheat needs considered at less than 150,000,000 bushels, the country is expected this year to produce 544,000,000 bushels of wheat—a big, bumper crop that would be the third largest in history.

Along with this forecast, the Bureau of Statistics estimated today that Canada this year should produce bigger harvests of oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, potatoes and some forage crops.

The 544,000,000-bushel wheat harvest forecast compared with the previous records of 567,000,000 in 1928 and 557,000,000 [illegible] 1942.

By way of contrast, it would be 178,000,000 bushels higher than the previous five-year average of 366,000,000 and 150,000,000 bushels greater than the 10-year average of 394,000,000.

Although the bumper harvest prospect would give the country confidence of entering a possible third world war with plentiful food supplies, the unexpected high output may have a gloomy immediate influence on international prices.

A few days ago the Chicago wheat market dipped slightly when a private grain report placed Canada's possible wheat harvest at about 485,000,000 bushels. New fluctuations may result from the [illegible] forecast. The Chicago market had closed by the time today's official forecast was made public.

This forecast, however, is subject to change. The general harvesting season still is about 10 days away. Heavy rain or frost may change the picture. So could a railway strike, now looming before the country.

Sufficient storage [illegible] is available on the prairies for the bumper harvest but there would be no way of getting the grain to storage points if the Aug. 22 rail strike takes [illegible].

The higher output this year would not result from increased acreage but from higher yields per [illegible].

Federal Loan Nurses Supply Of U.S. Dollars

OTTAWA—(CP)—Finance Minister Abbott announced last night that the government soon will float a new $50,000,000 bond issue in the United States to help retire a $100,000,000 issue redeemable in American dollars.

The other $50,000,000 to pay off the issue will come out of the federal treasury's holdings of United States dollars. This reserve pool now is estimated at more than $1,225,000,000.

Officials gave no indication why the decision was taken to float a new American loan at a time when it was considered that dollar holdings were sufficient to pay off the full amount of the outstanding issue.

However, it appears likely that with government's spending now sharply increased because of the war in Korea and other international obligations, it has been decided to go easy on the federal treasury and pay off only half of the issue with [illegible].

NEW YORK—(CP)—The new $27,000,000 high alpha cellulose plant of Columbia Cellulose Co Ltd. near Prince Rupert, B.C., is expected to come into production during the first quarter of 1951, Harold Blancke, president of Celanese Corp of America, the parent company, said in a statement today.

Mr. Blancke, recently returned from an inspection trip to the plant and the company's 600,000-acre timber holding, expressed satisfaction with progress being made on the project.

A dam had to be built to store water and a 6½-mile pipeline cut through three mountains to carry water to the plant.

The first log-drive by the company would be launched "within the next few days" down the Skeena river.

Initial production would be geared to more than 200 tons a day, equivalent to about 44 per cent of the 1949 consumption of [illegible] pulp by the acetate, [illegible] nium and viscose [illegible] tire cord industries combined and roughly equal to consumption of such in the cellulose acetate rayon industry alone.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Frank Burns, who passed away Aug. 16th, 1949.

When the shadows of night are falling
And we are sitting alone,
There always comes a longing dear
If you could only come home.

—Ever remembered by his loving wife and family.

Here Are 2 Of The Outstanding Department Stores In The Province of Alberta

NO. 1—Located in one of the best districts in all of Canada. Dense population in this district, and town population about 2,500. Excellent mixed farming country. This is the outstanding store within a radius of 30 miles on one side, 50 miles on another, 70 miles on another and about 100 on another. While the turnover is excellent at the present time (about $300,000) it could be made very much larger.
Stock about $90,000. Fixtures about $7,000. Building 100'x100', solid brick, very substantial building, 2 storeys, modern. The building can be purchased at a reasonable valuation or rental at very reasonable rental on lease of from 5 to 10 years. TERMS: ALL CASH for stock and fixtures.
OR—A partnership could be arranged with the present owner, new partner to have about $60,000 cash and to assume management.

NO. 2—The leading store in a very progressive mixed farming district, town population about 1,500; unbounded radius on 3 sides and about 25 miles on the other. Main building contains about 10,500 square feet of floor space; warehouse space about 4,200 square feet.
Stock about $100,000. Furnishings and fixtures about $11,000. Buildings and land $60,000. TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE, about $171,000. OR, the buildings might be rented.

If you want the best there is in a good retail store, showing exceptionally good profits, one of these should be of interest to you.

Bomber Finds RCMP Aircraft Missing 2 Days

WINNIPEG, Aug. 16.—(CP)—An RCMP plane, missing two days in the far north with four men aboard, has been located safe at Cape Smith on the east coast of Hudson Bay.

Superintendent E. H. Terlson said "everything is okay—they just came down to sit out bad weather."

RCAF headquarters said the police aircraft was located by a four-engined Lancaster bomber which took off early today from Coral Harbor to start a search.

"The Lancaster has reported that the plane appears undamaged and that the men were seen walking around," said an RCAF spokesman.

U.S. Personnel Will Mingle

FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The United States Army in Germany is starting a "get friendly" campaign with the German population.

Army officials said yesterday the campaign will urge "increased co-mingling of Americans and western Germans wherever possible."

JOE HICKEY

We take pleasure in introducing Joe Hickey who has recently been appointed manager for our Central Edmonton District (between 97 Street to 109 Street, north of the river), which includes such districts as Northcote, Westwood, McDougall and Hudson's Bay Reserve.

Joe, formerly with the west end office, has left a host of friends and happy home owners, and we assure you he will extend the same courteous, dependable service to his clients in his new district.

Joe has proven a likeable salesman and being a family man and home owner, knows the problems that face prospective home buyers. We are confident that you will enjoy doing business with him.

Joe recommends the following:

SELECTED VALUES

$2,500 down will take this 3 room Stucco Bungalow. It has a living room, bedroom, kitchen and breakfast nook on main floor, also extra bedroom in a full basement with plumbing. Located on a 50x150' lot. Close to school, stores and transportation. Full price $6,000. Act fast on this one.

This 5 room stucco bungalow is planned so that the dining room may be used as the third bedroom. All fir construction with roughed in plumbing in the basement. No. 1 Red Oak floors and your choice of decorating. Nicely planned kitchen with dinette space. Possession September 1. Location for schools and transportation excellent. $3,500 cash will handle, with balance $50 per month. See this one for a perfect bungalow plus value you can't compare. Full price $9,200.

ALSO

See this nearly new 4 room stucco bungalow with a beautifully landscaped lot plus the cement walks; all the hard work done. Then enter a nice living room with electric fireplace and oak floors like glass. The kitchen has lots of cupboards and space to eat plus wired for electric stove. Bedrooms are spacious with large closets. Your wife will appreciate a back porch, one such as this—with the clothes line entrance especially since winter is coming on. Extra features are iron railings and awnings. The full price is $8,750 and that's "Good." We can also arrange very good terms if required.

3 Burned As Acid Is Spilled In Bus

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 16.—(AP)—A passenger boarding a bus accidently dropped a half-gallon bottle of sulphuric acid Monday night, sending himself and two other passengers to a hospital for first aid treatment of minor acid burns on the feet and legs.

Carl Nelson, 66, said he was taking the acid home to fix a battery when someone pushed him and the bottle slipped from under his arm.

Chinese Protest Double Indignity

HONG KONG, Aug. 16 — (AP)—Reports from Canton say the Chinese unemployed there are hopping mad because their relief dole of rice isn't large enough and has too much sand and stone mixed in.

A Hong Kong newspaper said today 70 representatives from various unemployed groups in Canton lodged a protest with authorities asking that the situation be remedied.

Three Listed Dead On Ship

TADOUSSAC, Que., Aug. 16.—(CP)—With three passengers listed as dead, Quebec provincial police stood guard today over the burned-out hull of the river cruise ship Quebec, tied up at the wharf of this lower St. Lawrence port.

Because of the charred condition of the bodies, positive identification of the dead posed a problem for investigators. But Canada Steamship Lines, owners of the 7,000-ton Quebec, listed Mr. and Mrs. Norman Shapiro and a son of the town of Mount Royal, Que., as missing. A second son escaped.

The company in a statement listed the missing boy as Bernard. But in this there appeared to be some confusion since in Montreal garage operator Andy Levinson, long-acquainted with the Shapiros, said the rescued lad was eight-year-old Bernard and that Bernard's six-year-old brother, Leonard, must have been the missing lad aboard the Quebec.

Air Raid Shelters Hinted In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Bomb shelters and slit trenches are to be dug throughout the Elmendorf air force base and its adjacent housing areas, the base newspaper Sourdough Sentinel said Monday. Location and type of construction for the shelters is under study now, it was announced.

HE'LL PROVE SUGAR LACK IS JUST MYTH

READING, Pa., Aug. 16.—(AP)—An operator of a gasoline station here today promised two pounds of sugar and a car wash free with every purchase of seven gallons of gasoline.

Edward Stein explained in circulars he distributed that he will sponsor the stunt Friday and Saturday to prove there is no sugar shortage.

Jackie Robinson Thinks Dodgers Will Trade Him

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Aug. 16.—(AP)—Jackie Robinson, famed negro second baseman of Brooklyn Dodgers, said today "I won't be surprised if I'm traded to some other club before the start of the 1951 season."

Robinson gave this opinion amid indications of rising tension on the Brooklyn team, such as can be expected on a championship club favored to win the pennant but now lagging 6½ games behind the leaders.

"I can't tell you any more," Robinson said to an Associated Press reporter, "It may be no more than a hunch. I've just got the feeling. That's all."

Regina Man Hurt Here

Eagerness to greet a relative whom he had not seen for some time sent Regina visitor Chris Aasen to University Hospital at 3:45 p.m. yesterday with broken left leg, cuts, concussion and shock.

Aasen was injured, police said, when he stepped from behind a parked truck into the path of a station wagon jeep proceeding north on 109 street near 78 avenue.

He was trying to cross the road to greet a cousin, A. H. Anderson, whose southbound car had pulled into the curb on the other side of 109 street.

Another cousin, C. J. Anderson, 12111-95 street, brother of the man Aasen was trying to reach, was at the wheel of the parked truck which Aasen had just left when the accident occurred.

The injured man was on holiday here with his wife and three children.

EVESHAM, Worcestershire, England.—(CP)—The River Avon has turned yellow here. Polution is suspected.
